Johnson To Seek Board Post

Charles M. Johnson

Establishment of American Numismatic Association headquarters, attention for the A.N.A. library and membership directory, and expansion of the board of governors are planks in the platform of Charles M. Johnson, Long Beach, Calif., candidate for the board of governors for the August election in Georgia during the A.N.A.'s 70th annual convention.

Johnson wants a library, museum, collection, exhibits and other functions brought together at an A.N.A. headquarters. He also favors an endowment fund to receive and encourage gifts and bequests of money, collections and other assistance to the A.N.A. from individuals, clubs and other sources.

C.N.A. President Resigns

C. C. Tannahill

Dr. J. S. Wilkinson

C. C. Tannahill Vacates Post; Wilkinson To Serve

C. C. Tannahill has resigned as president of the Canadian Numismatic Association.

Dr. John S. Wilkinson of Toronto, vice president, will serve as acting president of the C.N.A. until the next general election at the Hamilton convention August 31-September 2.

Announcement of the Regina, Saskatchewan, numismatist's resignation as head of the C.N.A.

came in the March issue of the C.N.A.'s official publication, The Canadian Numismatic Journal.

The executive committee, in announcing Tannahill's letter of resignation, extended "heartily congratulations" to the retiring officer "upon his promotion to the position of regional manager for his firm in northern Saskatchewan with main office at Saskatoon."

The committee added its appreciation for Tannahill's "devoted services" through Regina's 1959 convention and in his office at a time when the "association is undergoing such phenomenal development with attendant organizational problems which entail an ever-increasing volume of correspondence."

Dr. Wilkinson, a specialist in ancient Greek silver coins, is no stranger to leadership — he served two terms as president of the Toronto Coin Club.

A member of the American Numismatic Society and the American Institute of Archaeology, Dr. Wilkinson is a graduate in dentistry from the University of Toronto in 1924.

The new head of numismatics in Canada was born in Toronto in 1904, and grew up in western Canada. He began his study of dentistry at the University of Alberta.

He first acquired a small collection of coins from his father, and concentrated on the Canadian token series until the outbreak of the war.

Phony Gold Smelted At German Mint

A total of 155 counterfeit United States five dollar gold coins (Indian head type) were ordered withdrawn from three Frankfurt, Germany, banks last week and turned in for smelting to the Frankfurt Mint, according to Capt. Alvin E. Naumann, of the United States Air Force, European theater.

Close examination of the coins revealed each was off in weight, color and metallic sound during tests, according to Captain Naumann.

"Collectors of U. S. gold coins will welcome the recent U. S. Treasury directive that makes it a criminal offense to counterfeit U. S. gold coins in Germany as well as other European countries. Let us hope that this will discourage the successful counterfeiter of the past. His fine in the past has been less than a hundred dollars . . ." the captain concluded.

Numismatists Rally For Robbed Amputee

The tide has turned in Victor LaVelle's favor—thanks to coin dealers and collectors all over the nation!

The 30-year-old unemployed Los Angeles amputee displayed very little emotion when thieves broke into his home and robbed him of $166.50 in coins—the nucleus of what he hoped would be a coin dealership.

LaVelle was too numb to protest—he was drained of feeling.

Just a few months ago his seven and eight-year-old sons were killed in a car crash—an accident that smashed his artificial leg beyond repair.

There was no money to replace the shattered limb.

The stolen coins were LaVelle's last hope to earn a living.

Collectors in the Los Angeles area were quick to inform Coin World of LaVelle's plight.

Now offers of coins are pouring into Coin World, and many are on their way to his home at 4254 Normal Avenue in Los Angeles, 29, Calif.

Typical of the responses are these:

A wire from Dr. Herman L. Thomas, Poteau, Okla., advised Coin World he sent a quantity of coins to LaVelle. "Suggest many other readers do same to help him realize his dream of coin shop," the telegram urged.

Milton J. Long, Long's Coin and Key Shop, Wooster, Ohio, sent a proof set "to help LaVelle regain his faith in his fellowman."

"I would like to see other dealers follow suit by sending him a roll of coins or a proof set," declared Long.

This is the pledge of C. B. Murray, Shawnee, Kansas:

One roll 1960-D small date, BU, 1961 U. S. proof sets, two 1961 mint-like proof sets (Canadian), one BU 1955 Mexican 5 peso gold piece, one roll 1960 cent pieces, BU (Canadian).

"It seems we all are so busy in our small world we sometimes forget those not as fortunate and forget to count our blessings," (Continued on Page 2)

Ex-Showman Dealer Conducts Record Sale

Veteran showman Tommy Ryan said auctioning a coin sale is just like "doing a show" as he conducted on March 26 the first coin auction in Chicago since the American Numismatic Association sale in 1956.

The new Chicago coin dealer, who as an entertainer appeared with Phil Silvers, proved that showmanship paid off as he broke a handful of record prices for top coins in his first sale.

A crowd of 400 dealers and collectors, many who traveled quite a distance to attend, watched as the 537 lot auction approached the $100,000 level.

Star attraction of the auction was a complete set of proof sets from 1858 to 1915 which sold for $35,000 to a West Coast dealer. This was a record, since the last public sale of a similar set brought $25,000 several years ago.

The Pan Pacific set of five coins in gold and silver brought two bids of $7,600, setting a new market value.

The 1864-L Indian in proof, rarest of all the Indian cents, brought $3,700 from an East Coast dealer.

A brilliant uncirculated 1916-D Mercury dime, beautifully struck, brought $425 against a $500 estimate.

An extremely fine 1856 Flying Eagle brought $800.

A complete set of uncirculated Lincolns from 1909 to 1960 brought $2,000. The later date Philadelphia cents were all proofs. The set did not contain a 1922 plain.

Other outstanding items in the sale were:

A complete set of $5 gold Indian heads, lot 176, brought $1,600.

The 1860 $5 Mormon gold, rarest of this series, brought $1,100, while the Oregon Territory $5 gold Beaver brought $1,700.

A first year $5 gold, 1795, brought $500. The 1851 $50 slug sold for $3,000.

The $20 Kellogg & Co. in uncirculated condition brought $490 against a $550 estimate.

A complete set of proof sets from 1936 to 1960 brought $915.

A proof Isabella commemorative quarter brought $100.

All Indian cents sold above catalog.

In reflecting on the sale, auctioneer Ryan commented he was confident it would do well, "but I didn't know it would do this good!"

He is accepting consignments for an October auction, again to be held in Chicago, and will be cataloging coins for this sale until August.

Rare Coin Down Hatch?

Youngstown, Ohio, police were seeking a 17-year-old Lake Milton youth believed to have stolen a rare coin by swallowing it.

The youth and a neighbor the same age were arrested after two coins valued at $92.50 were stolen from Rare Coins, Inc.

One coin was recovered; police turned one boy over to his parents when they suspected he had swallowed it.

When the police went to check on the boy, he had disappeared; he is believed to be enroute to New York City.

Japanese Coin Show Held In Daiwa Store

Japan has its numismatists, as evidenced by a recent display of Japanese and other old and new money, held at the Daiwa department store in Kanazawa City, Ishigawa Prefecture, Japan.

The show was jointly sponsored by the newspaper Hokkoku Shimbun, and the Prefectural "Saving Promotion Committee." There were 4,000 items or groups exhibited.

Fred Buza Hospitalized

Coin dealer Fred L. Buza of Route 1, Box 176, Stevens Point, Wis., is in the hospital as of March 28.

He writes stating that he will not be able to answer orders and asks that his correspondents be patient.

Chicago Coin Dealer Purchases Rathke Collection, Manuscript

Walter Rathke, former classics librarian at the University of Chicago, spent a lifetime building his collection of medals and decorations, and writing of the background from a historian's viewpoint.

His work ended with his death last December in Chicago.

But the 80-year-old specialist's work will be contributed to posterity now, thanks to a Chicago coin dealer's efforts.

Leonard W. Stark, of the Central Coin Mart, 25 N. Dearborn, Chicago, purchased the 1,300-item collection from the Rathke estate.

Included in the collection are medals or decorations from nearly every present and former European monarch, medals from American Campaigns dating back to the Revolutionary War and Indian battles.

Among the European decorations is England's Order of the Bath and a Nazi medal once awarded to Adolph Hitler by the mayor of a German city.

Stark also obtained the manuscript for a book Rathke spent years writing. It outlines the historical background of the medals and decorations. Stark hopes to find a publisher for it.

Leonard W. Stark, Chicago coin dealer, is looking for a publisher for the manuscript prepared by the late Walter Rathke, noted medals and decorations authority, who died last December. Stark recently purchased the collection (see photo at right) and the writings from the Rathke estate. Chain at lower right was awarded to Adolph Hitler by a German mayor.

Tour Medal

This medal was ordered by the King of Thailand (Siam) to commemorate a tour he recently made in Japan. It was the first medal ever to be struck by the official Mint of Japan.

A.N.A. Reprint Committee, wants replacements for worn and lost books in the A.N.A. library, re-binding of volumes, and acquisition of scarce and out-of-print books on U.S., foreign and ancient numismatic subjects.

"During the past years I have collected a working U.S. numismatic library of over 700 volumes and have consulted many A.N.A. books," Johnson disclosed. "I believe I am qualified to work on this problem."

The Californian originated and served as chairman of the A.N.A. Reprint Project which recently has brought four numismatic books of selected reprints from The Numismatist to A.N.A. members and numismatists.

President O. H. Dodson, head of the A.N.A., paid tribute to Johnson in the forward of the four books. He wrote:

"Although many have collaborated in the preparation of this volume, we are deeply indebted to Charles M. Johnson, whose imagination, enthusiasm and indefatigable effort brought this project to success."

Johnson wants the A.N.A. directory issued in a useable and presentable form. He also urges expansion of the board of governors to broaden and give the board greater depth. He would like to see directors partially or wholly elected from designated geographical sections of the country.

"The A.N.A. does not need politicians and office holders—it needs leaders, workers and numismatists interested in improving and expanding our national organization, so as to render more service to those pursuing the great and fascinating hobby of numismatics," the candidate declared.

Long Beach Coin Club, the nominating organization for Johnson, points out that he is a long time member and active worker in the club of over 200 members. In 1956 he was president, and has since served continuously on the club's board of directors. At present he is a director of the California State Numismatic Association and the Numismatic Association of Southern California, two of the largest and most active California numismatic groups.

Since 1957 he has done an outstanding job as assistant editor of Calcoin News, a regional California numismatic publication.

Numismatically Charles M. Johnson is a collector of U. S. coins and paper money and of numismatic literature. He has won a number of exhibit awards including the A.N.A. Amos Carter memorial award for paper money. In the November, 1960, issue of The Numismatist he had a full length article on U.S. small size paper money.

He is an attorney by profession and has been a member of the California Bar since 1935. For 12 years he headed the legal department of a California oil corporation, where he specialized in oil and corporation law. During the past several years, as a speculative builder, he has built a number of apartment houses and homes, and holds a California building contractor's license.

with the Canadian dental corps from 1939 until 1945. During this period he had opportunities to buy ancient Greek silver coins and thus transferred to this specialty.

"My collection is modest in size," said Dr. Wilkinson, "but it does contain more than five per cent of the Lockett silver (Greek) coins and more than two per cent of the Pozzi Greek silver coins."

A new constitution for the C.N.A. will be considered at the Hamilton convention; a constitution committee comprised of Major Sheldon S. Carroll, chairman, Fred Bowman and A. Mitchell MacDonald was named at the 1960 Sherbrooke convention to draft a new constitution.

Text of the draft constitution in its entirety is also to be found in the March issue of The Canadian Numismatic Journal.

Members are invited to study the document and submit their views by registered mail to Fred Bowman, 210 Fifty-Third Avenue, Lachine, Quebec, not later than the end of April.

Legal counsel will prepare a second draft for final review and approval at the Hamilton convention.

Officials of the association plan to incorporate the group as a non-profit organization, devoted to historical and scientific studies, and to the enlargement of its membership and scope of its activities.

J. Douglas Ferguson, C.N.A. life member No. 7, and honorary president of the organization, has given notice that he will propose a resolution at the Hamilton convention to change the name from Canadian Numismatic Association to Canadian Numismatic Society.

Bruce R. Brace, convention chairman, and Mrs. Thelma Anderson, secretary-treasurer of the convention, reminded those who plan to attend the 1961 C.N.A. convention in Hamilton to mail reservations directly to the convention hotel, the Royal Connaught.

Albert Sentes, 1271 Coric Avenue, Burlington, Ontario, is chairman of the bourse committee. Bourse tables are available at $40 each for the three days. This fee includes registration, use of a display case.

Sentes said the tables are six feet long, and each bourse space will be separated from adjacent ones by waist-high dividers to give leeway for conversation.

Space reservations must be accompanied by a $10 advance fee. Should any dealer find it impossible to attend, Sentes said refunds will be available up to August 15.

Eugene Culp, 8 Gerrard Street, Hamilton, is chairman of the exhibits committee.

LaVelle . . .

Murry philosophized.

"I believe if every coin collector and dealer would count all of their good fortunes they have received, each would make a small pledge of coins to someone less fortunate."

Murry envisioned thousands of collectors responding to LaVelle's need "making his misfortune a dream beyond his wildest imagination."

"I for one would have a very good feeling inside if this would become a reality," the Texan commented.

"I have sent Mr. LaVelle some of my coins, and I hope you can help him at least a little," advised Steve Seps, Cicero, Ill.

Bieciuk Frowns Upon Reprint Notes; Cites Inherent Danger

Texan Says They're Like Altered Dates

By Hank Bieciuk

"Caveat Emptor". Freely translated from Latin, this means

"Let the buyer beware." P. T. Barnum took the phrase one step further—"there's a sucker born every minute." Unfortunately, far too many collectors and dealers take this phrase literally. In the obsolete currency field, a reprint note is the counterpart of the altered date coin. Neither serves any useful purpose and both should be eliminated from the numismatic scene. The inherent dangers in the existence of either far outweigh any possible curiosity value they may possess.

An altered date coin, upon careful examination, can usually be easily detected. A reprint note offers much more of a problem. Collectors are not as familiar with currency as they are with coins and are more apt to be fooled by a reprint.

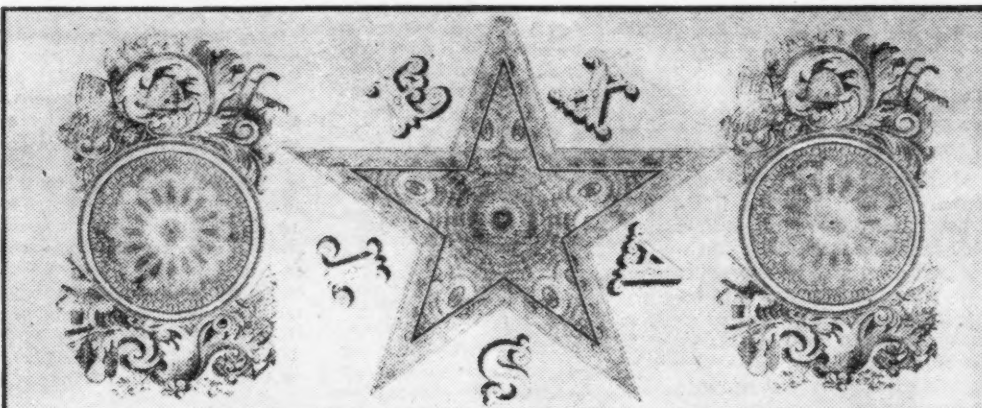

In determining whether or not a note is a reprint, the paper used in printing the note can be your best guide. All reprint notes, of necessity, are on paper of modern manufacture; be it bond, onion skin or antique finish. Genuine bank note paper is unobtainable. Thus, this type of reprint note can easily be identified.

Somewhat more difficult to identify by the novice, are the Republic and Government of Texas notes currently being manufactured in the east. These notes are on heavy antique paper and have been chemically aged. In this instance, a genuine note was photographed; a plate was made from the photograph; and the notes were printed from this plate. As a result of this, all of these notes have printed signatures, dates and serial numbers.

Genuine notes of the Republic and Government of Texas were printed on white banknote paper and all of them bear written signatures, dates and serial numbers. In addition to this, the $5, $10, $20, $50, $100 and $500 notes of the Republic of Texas all have red printed backs, whereas the reprints are blank.

A Republic of Texas reprint on antiqued, aged paper—a genuine note has a red printed back; this note's back is blank.

A reprint of a Republic of Texas note on bond paper with printed signatures, date and serial number; this note has a printed reverse, the genuine note is uniface.

The most difficult reprint to identify is the one reprinted from the original plate. Occasionally, these original plates become available and are purchased for the express purpose of reprinting notes. However, these too, must be printed on modern day paper and the paper is the only identifying factor in recognizing them.

Last fall, a west coast dealer held an auction sale and in the sale catalog a number of obsolete notes and uncut sheets were listed. Upon checking the catalog, I noticed that one sheet of 4 notes on a New York bank was listed as "very rare". This "rare" sheet was a current reprint from original plates and was being sold in the east as a reprint at $1 per sheet. As a matter of fact, the reverse side of this sheet carried the word "Reprint" in minute letters on each note.

I wrote this dealer a letter and informed him of the error in his listing. The gentlemen replied by letter and thanked me for the information. Several days after the conclusion of the sale, I received a list of prices realized. The particular sheet in question was sold on a bid of $14.50!

While reprints are sold as such, there is always the danger that they will, at some later date, be palmed off as genuine notes. In the past two months I have been confronted on several occasions with just this situation. In one instance, a dealer wrote to me, stating that a customer of his had "found" some rare Texas currency and asked if I would be interested in a purchase. The "rare Texas currency" turned out to be a very modern reprint, and I feel sure that it was not acquired as such.

In another, extreme instance, I was mailed samples of a "hoard" of Confederate currency that was supposedly buried 50 years ago and just recently recovered. The reprints in this instance were probably made 10 or 20 years ago, but were very crude and easily discernible as such.

New Federal legislation has been proposed to curb the altering of coins. Unfortunately, little has been said and less has been done to curb reprints. I have spoken to several dealers who handle obsolete currency about reprints; and all of them, without exception, are opposed to reprints. But in the end, it is the collector who must take a stand against reprints, for it is in his collection that they will find their resting place.

If you don't know currency, know your dealer!

Test Case Affects Coins

A test case in New Mexico has strong numismatic overtones. If the state of New Mexico is successful it can seize historically important property from private individuals for their own museums. Once this becomes law in New Mexico, other states could follow suit and could put quite a restriction on collecting historical objects.

The case revolves around a book dealer from Kansas City, Missouri, who purchased 1,500 documents from the descendant of a New Mexico governor. The documents, all in Spanish, are dated from 1697 to 1846.

Rare book dealer Kenneth D. Sender had set a price of $50,000 for the valuable papers and had offered to sell these to the New Mexico Museum. The state archivist, Joe Halpin, invited Sender to Santa Fe for the purpose of examining the papers.

When Sender arrived in New Mexico the sheriff seized the documents by a court order instigated by Halpin on the ground that they are historically the property of the state of New Mexico. The legal point was that Sender was not charged with doing anything wrong in obtaining the papers, but this was a civil suit to recover them for the state.

Of course, Sender screamed that he had been ambushed and robbed of his private property. He claims he has a receipt to prove his purchase of the valuable papers. His screams were of no use, however, since the state had the documents and it would take a bond of double the value (in this case, $100,000) to get the property back.

"I've got a lot of money tied up in them," said Sender, "they're worth a lot of money. No other archive of New Mexico has been found in the last forty years that I know of. What I don't understand is how a state can lawfully take a man's property from him."

The assistant attorney general of New Mexico said the seizure was made under a law passed in 1959 and that the suit would be a test case.

If New Mexico wins this case the private property of all collectors of historical objects—and this certainly includes coins and paper money—is in jeopardy. A similar case occurred in Georgia where a New York man won as the court ruled that the papers were private documents rather than public.

Suits For Unc. Coins

In another suit, Camden coin dealer Fred Johnson is suing two banks in his home city to provide him with rolls and bags of uncirculated coins.

His business is based on a continuous supply of new coins, according to the wording of the lawsuit, and these banks have stopped supplying these to him.

This is the first active step a numismatic dealer has taken to preserve his right to obtain a quantity of new coins. The banks have brought all this upon themselves.

The worst situation is in the Cleveland Federal Reserve bank where new coins and old coins are intermixed purposely to thwart coin collectors.

We all will be watching the outcome of Freddie Johnson's lawsuit (who, incidentally is not related to me, nor to Jim Johnson on Coin World's staff). We are tipping our hat to our namesake's courage, but we do not give him much chance to win. Good luck, however!

Letters To The Editor

Please stop press...I feel paper has got too big...too good...let's send paper in two parts...

Putting Lincoln next to Davis on your medal is blasphemy. They stood for two ways of life—one basically good, one evil.
A. Richard Works

Congratulations on your issue of Coin World dated March 23. It is the best yet! You have packed more information and history of coinage in one issue than I believed possible.

Lyle L. Thomas
Janesville, Wis.

Your last issue shows 46,666 subscribers and that's much too far to our goal! Right? But I alone can't get all the rest we need. Now you must admit that four subscriptions in a three-week period is all you would need from all your readers...so give them a little pep talk...Your paper is doing a wonderful job, and all the readers who speak so highly of your publication should help you on your goal.

My past issues go to the Veterans' Hospital here in Chicago.
John Nichols
La Grange, Ill.

Let me say that I have enjoyed my Coin World more than any periodical that has ever been left in my mail box. My sincere hope is that you will always be as you have been this past year...I mean I have learned more about coins through your paper than any other publication that I receive and I feel as though you were telling me the truth.

Every time I attend a coin sale or meeting everyone has a copy of Coin World under his arm. When people use the Coin World as a guide it proves to me that your staff is very well equipped for the job that they do. I am proud to be a charter member, and I am a salesman for you.

I won't mutilate my copy of Coin World by cutting out the subscription blank, but here is my check for two more years of Coin World.

George Harrower
Denver, Colo.

I enclose $5 in payment for a renewal for myself and one for a new collector...one more toward the 50,000 subscriptions....

Ray Toy
El Cajon, Calif.

In renewing my subscription to the Coin World, I want to tell you how proud I am that I had the privilege of recommending you for the position of editor for the magazine. I knew this was your dream and now I have seen your dream come true not only as a recognition of your enthusiasm and ability but as a benefit to American numismatics.

Eric P. Newman
St. Louis, Mo.

I am only a bonus subscriber but I plan on renewing my subscription as soon as mine runs out. I would like to compliment you on your special Civil War issue. It was just plain great!

Jim Schreier
Milwaukee, Wis.

Congratulations on your first birthday celebration! I am enclosing my renewal to boost the count. As president of the Numismatic Association of Southern California, I would like to thank you for the coverage you gave our convention in your March 16 issue of Coin World...This type of publicity helps make a convention successful...Now we are faced with the task of trying to beat this record next year.

The response to my ads has been rewarding. I find difficulty in catching up on my replies.

John H. Olsen

I see where some people don't like the mug shots and articles on thefts in Coin World. Keep it up! If you do, it may help some careless individuals to be more careful. The pictures also show one who these characters are.

Cecil R. Henry
Detroit, Mich.

Your Coin World samples were warmly received by visitors to our Marion, Ind. coin show held Sunday, March 12. I hope we can help you hit the 50,000 mark. Thank you, too, for advertising our show in your paper.

I wish I could think of some original and / or clever way to tell you how many hours of pleasure your newspaper has brought to me. You see, this time last year I didn't even know what the word "bourse" meant! It sounded like "soup," but I've observed that it sometimes can mean "gravy" for some people. I had already learned that "proof coins" weren't coins from the "show me" state of Missouri!

As a widow with a high school daughter and a college freshman son, (a Retor Scholar at DePauw) I find coin collecting quite an ideal hobby. I can "crawl in on all fours" after a day of teaching, then relax with your magazine, or coins to sort, and spend an always - entertaining evening. On the other hand, attending coin meetings and coin shows provides many friends with common interests. Dealers and other coin collectors have been most helpful in answering questions.

The philosophy I have gained from some of your columns is that coin collecting should be enjoyable, regardless of the kind of collecting done. To this I say a hearty "Amen" since I am still at the "penny, nickel, and dime" stage. But the more I read your newspaper, the more I find my interest growing in other coins. Please don't ever get too sophisticated for rank amateurs like me!

Frances Child
Marion, Ind.

Thank you for the fine job you did with my five inch classified "for trade" ad. Results have been very good and mail is still coming each day. With just two ads in Coin World, I have completed just over 100 trades. I get many letters from collectors who think Coin World is tops and say so. In the near future I intend to take advantage of the contract rates.....I feel that I should keep my name exposed to your readers.

Robert E. Albright
Detroit, Mich.

Since I am a new collector I read the advertisements with deep interest as these ads carry the coins I need. Almost every edition of your paper carries five or six mail bids. All ads indicate "standard bid rules apply" or no mention is made of any rules which govern the sale.

Although I would like to participate in these mail bid sales, I am hesitant because I am not aware of what the "standard bid rules" are or any other type of rules which govern these sales.

I feel there are many collectors who would like this explanation printed in your paper. No doubt, it will also be welcomed by the advertisers as they probably receive many bids which are not in accordance with rules and this explanation would decrease the number of incorrect bid letters.

Please advise also if these "rules" are printed in any book.

Ted Kulaga
Chicago, Ill.

(Reader Kulaga should read Pages 10 and 11 of the January 5, 1961, edition of Coin World—Editor.)

I wish to congratulate Jim Kelly on his fine articles in your newspaper. I think his best article was the one in the March 19 edition of your paper. Keep up the good work.

I'm enclosing $3 for a 52-week subscription to Coin World. If possible I especially want the Civil War Centennial issue. I think your paper is the best in the field for news.

Northwest Central Clubs Organize, Hold Coin Show

Francis H. B. George, Billings, Mont., was named the first president of the new Northwest Central States Numismatic Association, elected at the first coin show and organizational meeting March 25-26 at the Billings Northern Hotel.

The Billings Coin Club was the host group with 200 collectors in attendance; club representatives were from South Dakota, North Dakota, Wyoming and Montana, and participated in the formulation of the association.

Elected to serve with George were Roy Prickett, Thermopoli, Wyo., first vice president; Larry Anderson, Minot, N. D., second vice president; O. K. Chapman, Laurel, Mont., third vice president; W. R. Scott, Billings, secretary-treasurer.

Directors include: Three-year-term: Mrs. George Reynolds, Great Falls, Mont.; Joe Rykowski, Billfield, N. D.

Two-year-term: Newton Cummings, Malta, Mont. Open (would like representative from South Dakota).

One-year-term: Felix Restad, Billings, Mont.; Mrs. P. W. Metz, Basin, Wyo.

Constitution and by-laws were adopted under the leadership of John Habeger, Billings. The association seal will be selected from contest entries.

The 1962 convention site will be chosen at a later date as this matter will be referred to the various clubs' boards of directors.

Warren Hall, of Billings, won the grand award trophy for his foreign coin display, Class B, according to the convention co-chairmen, Francis George and Jack A. Quilico. They were assisted in extending hospitality by the president of the Billings Coin Club, W. R. "Curly" Scott.

Other winners were as follows:

Section 1, United States Coins: Class B, Silver, first place, Ed Wight, Billings.

Class C, Minor Coins, first place, Warren Hall, Billings; second place, O. K. Chapman, Laurel, Mont. third place, J. T. Brownlee, Wolf Point, Mont.

Class D, Specialized, first place, O. K. Chapman, Laurel; second place, Warren Hall, Billings.

Key Club Announces April 9 Open House

The Key Coin Club of New Haven, Conn., was scheduled to hold an "Open House" on Sunday, April 9, at the Y. W. C. A., 48 Howe Street, New Haven. Following the session, games were planned, with "key" Lincoln cents to be given as prizes.

Officers of the Key Coin Club include Frank C. Mirto, president; John Marchitto, vice president; Gus Dubovik, treasurer; J. Ginsberg, secretary, and Burton Shaine, corresponding secretary.

Identification Of Coins, Valuation Among Queries

I would like identification of this coin: 5-pointed star on one side with figure 5 and some foreign marks inside the star; on the other side, two irregular triangles interlaced, with 1320, and something that could be Turkish.

Leo Holman

Wayne City, Ill.

ANSWER: Your coin is from Morocco, the 1320 corresponds to our date 1902, denomination 5 Mazunas. This coin with slightly different design is listed around 50 cents value. However, the Yeoman and Raymond catalogues do not show your design as having been coined before 1912 in that denomination, which may or may not mean anything.

Claude E. Sohn of Middletown, Pa., writes that he is a collector of tokens and foreign coins, among other things. Because of health and circumstances, he is unable to travel to other towns to club meetings, and would like to meet other collectors in his neighborhood.

If there are any members of the Harrisburg, Hershey, Lebanon Valley or other clubs living in the Middletown area who care to visit Mr. Sohn to talk coins, or correspond with him, any letters to him care of this column will be forwarded.

I have in my possession a coin inscribed as follows: Chambre de Commerce, Lille, Ordonnance du 31 Juillet, 1714. It is silver dollar size and in perfect condition. I obtained it in France during World War II. Can you tell me about it?

Sydney Crapper, Capt., Ret.

Nassau in the Bahamas.

ANSWER: Beyond the obvious fact that it is French, no. Our library seems deficient on such coins. Davenport does not list it in "Crowns of the World", presumably because it is not an "official" coin of the realm but apparently provincial and possibly a medal, not a coin. Let us hope that somebody sees this and writes us about it.

I have tried to get some "Good" 1921 and 1921-D dimes. Most of them sent me had no rims, the outer edges of the letters were worn away. Does Brown and Dunn call these good, or shouldn't they if so many other people do? I think they should be rated "Fair".

If I had understood that so-called "Good" dimes may be that badly worn, I would not have considered them but asked for dimes with good rims on both sides, and clear dates. I think dealers should make it known that "Good" dimes can be that worn. It would save time and money for both dealers and collectors.

John H. Olsen

Kittery Point, Me.

REPLY: Brown and Dunn are not as clear as they should be. For "About Good" they say the "rim will be worn down into top of letters; for "Good", "all letters and date must be plain", which by implication means the rim will not be worn down into top of letters, but there is a difference in meaning between plain as "legible", and clear as "all there".

In our opinion, "Good" dimes must have the date and lettering free of the rim as far as wear is concerned, and what you have been getting have been "About Good" at best. We suspect that people have been "grading" the dimes by rarity rather than by

Brown and Dunn, and have no sympathy for them. Scarcity of a coin has no effect on its grade. Anything else is ignorance or dishonesty.

H. F. MacInnis, Camrose, Alberta, Canada, writes about the 1947 Canadian "dot" nickel, listed in Charlton at $25 Unc. He says he has never seen one advertised in Unc., with "Fine" about the best.

When he did see a VF advertised, and ordered it, he found it was upgraded. He wants to know why the top grades of this variety are so rare.

COMMENT: Probably because nobody much saved new nickels in 1947, and when the variety was discovered it was too late, most of them had been spent too many times. People did not worry about such "dots" until recently. Presumably they are caused by pits in the chrome-plated dies, a frequent occurrence and just as frequently unnoticed because they don't always show up prominently.

I have a 1960 cent that has a flaw in the O of the date. Do collectors want these? Is there a catalogue? I am 14 and spend some of my time in a wheel chair, and if you have other boys who are collectors, I would like to correspond with them.

Jimmy Vest

Cincinnati, Ohio

ANSWER: Depends on the flaw, and what caused it, (you did not describe it) but there are plenty of collectors who go in for 1960 cent oddities. You might write, E. G. Jewett, Box 41, Fresno, Calif. If any boys write you in care of this column, we will forward the letters to you. Good luck in your collecting, and hope you get some mail.

I have two Buffalo nickels with "E's" missing in "Five Cents", one from the "Five", the other from the "Cents". Have you any comment on them?

Joseph Slusarczyk

Meriden, Conn.

ANSWER: These are fairly common, and are caused by the usual filled die. If you look over a good many Buffalos, you will notice that perfectly clear and sharp "Five Cents" are scarcer than those not so nice, although missing letters are a little scarcer yet. However, they are not nearly as rare as missing legs!

It is our belief that the only collector who would pay extra for such would be one who was specializing in Buffalo oddities. If we get any letters on this, we'll pass them along to you.

Along the same line is a letter from Andy Hoffman of Detroit, Mich., who says he bought an uncirculated 1937-P Lincoln and noticed the "dot" missing between "E" and "Pluribus". He wants to know if it is rare and has extra value.

ANSWER: To be honest about it, we don't think so, except possibly to a "specialist". That dot is usually unnoticed anyway, and most people don't know whether it is there or isn't. There would be considerable difference between a missing dot and a missing nose on Lincoln, for example, or even a missing necktie. It is a question of "significant differences", in our opinion.

Will you give me the value of a 20-franc gold coin dated in 1857 in good condition?

G. C. Worsham

Green Bay, Va.

ANSWER: Friedberg lists this at $17.50 in Very Fine. Go up or down from there, according to condition. We can't come any closer than that without seeing it.

A. N. A. Officers Plan To Attend April California State Coin Show

"Things are humming to make the April 13-16 28th semi-annual convention-coin show for the California State Numismatic Association a big success," Don T. Thrall, general chairman of the convention, declared in a pre-convention statement.

The show, to be held at Hotel Claremont, Berkeley, will start with a unique site—the hotel is on the Berkeley-Oakland line so visitors will be in both cities within the same hotel.

American Numismatic Association president, Rear Admiral Oscar H. Dodson, USN (Ret.) will be among the A.N.A. officials attracted to this event. A.N.A. Assistant Secretary Don Sherer, Phoenix, Ariz., will attend. A.N.A. Board Member Robert G. McArthur will only have to leave his Oakland back yard to be master of ceremonies for the Saturday night banquet.

This is the East Bay Coin Club's third time to host the C.S.N.A. meet, according to Edward S. Lane, New East Bay president. Joining East Bay as co-hosts is the Hayward Area Coin Club; its new president is L. M. Bacon, who serves as assistant chairman, along with A. W. Ritchie.

Winn Osborne is in charge of registration; Sidney T. Gilligan, exhibits; Earl A. Parker, bourse; sergeant at arms, Rudy Gjurovich; auction, Donald B. Thompson of the rare coin department, New China Club, Reno.

Lighting, Donald B. Thompson; publicity, Roy Hill; numismatic forum, A. W. Ritchie; ladies' entertainment, Mrs. R. G. McArthur; banquet entertainment, Walter Morris; exhibit awards, Edward S. Lane.

The forum will feature Milton C. Strauch, new president of the Pacific Coast Numismatic Society, San Francisco, who will discuss "The Union Divided," and Stanley S. Hawley, a past East Bay Coin Club president, who will speak on "Coins of the Ancient Greeks."

The complete convention program follows:

Thursday, April 13: 9 a.m., convention opens, registration, placing of exhibits, bourse set-up, gold room.

Friday, April 14: 9 a.m., Registration, gold room foyer; 1:45 p.m., first auction session, pink room, Donald B. Thompson, auctioneer; 8 p.m. Numismatic Forum, pink room.

Saturday, April 15: 8 a.m., Coin Club officers' breakfast, south porch, Roy Hill, chairman; 9 a.m., Registration, gold room foyer; 9:30 a.m. C.S.N.A. executive board meeting, pink room; 10:30 a.m., C.S.N.A. members business meeting, pink room; 1 p.m., second auction session, pink room; Donald B. Thompson, auctioneer; 6:30 p.m. Social Hour, Empire Room; 7:30 p.m., Banquet, Empire Room.

Sunday, April 16: 9 a.m., Removal of exhibits and bourse, gold room. (Must be completed by noon)

The C.S.N.A. literary awards will be made Saturday night by Bryan Burke Jr., literary awards chairman.

Coin Care Sells Stock Of Stamps

Coin Care Corporation of Long Beach, Calif., is disposing of a large dealer's stock of stamps, United States and foreign, as a departure from its normal business of coin cleaner and coins.

The stock is being broken up into large and small lots, to be sold to dealers, collectors, investors and speculators. Lists are being prepared. Interested persons should write: Stamp Dept., Coin Care Corporation, P.O. Box 4252, Long Beach 4, Calif.

Medieval Money

The libra was worth about 240 deniers during the days of the early medieval period in Europe.

Flowers In Numismatics Club Study

Theme for the next meeting of the La Mesa, Calif., Numismatic Society, scheduled for Monday, April 17, at 7:30 p.m., in the Porter Park Recreational Center in La Mesa, is to be "Flowers and Floral Designs" in numismatics. Displays are to pertain to the theme, and awards will be given, based on a point system inaugurated for the first time at the March meeting.

At the last session, war was the theme, since March was named for Mars, god of war. Winner of the first award was Edward Beals with an exhibit of paper money, bayonets and helmets of World War II.

Also at the March meeting, Leonel C. Panosh was installed as the society's first honorary member, so honored for his past contributions to numismatics. He is a past president of the American Numismatic Association. Special guest at the session was Joe McTague, president of the Forster's Coin Club of San Diego.

On the program were Mrs. Loretta Crawford, who spoke about the effects of the Spanish-American war on numismatics, and Beals who described the effects of World War II on paper money.

Trends Of Today's Coin Values

Growth Of Hobby Amazes Veteran

By Jim Kelly
333 West First St., Dayton 2, Ohio

We continue to be amazed at the tremendous growth and activity in numismatics.

We feel that such popularity is deserved as no other hobby is so diversified. It offers a challenge to the most brilliant and wealthiest of collectors and can still be enjoyed and followed by collectors of even the most modest means. There have been many estimates as to the number of people who collect coins in some orderly fashion, but the figure we are inclined to believe as the most logical and accurate is between three and five million active collectors.

Jim Kelly

When I started in business in 1936, it was believed that there were between 75,000 and 100,000 people collecting coins. To the best of our knowledge, no other hobby has enjoyed such a consistent growth in popularity.

We point out these facts as they are important in evaluating the future of investment items. For example, the coinage of over a million proof sets in 1957 seemed ridiculous and, in the opinion of many, would always be a drug on the market.

Today the picture is completely different; as a matter of fact, there would not be a set available for every collector!

The 'Columbian half dollars, which oldtimers felt would never be worth more than a little over face value, are in demand with choice specimens bringing $3.00 and more. This same formula can be applied to a great many other items.

While it is not our job to predict or suggest investment purchases, we do feel that a study of the mintage record could be of considerable interest and help.

As a matter of fact, you will be surprised to find that many coins with a very low mintage record are selling quite cheap. This is not always the best guide as to value but it certainly is a factor and should be considered.

We want to thank a number of collectors who have written us pointing out discrepancies in various prices shown in Trends. This is appreciated and it will help us make this a more accurate and useful department to both collector and dealer.

Numismatic Depth Study

Difficult Quiz Result Of Gentlemen's Wager

By Q. David Bowers

During my recent stay in California for the Numismatic Association of Southern California convention I became involved in a discussion concerning coin quizzes. The gentleman discussing the quizzes with me maintained that the quizzes appearing in the Coin World and its contemporaries were too easy as all of the answers appeared in the Guide Book. I agreed that this was so, but that most collectors have never read most of the information in that volume. He then, on a gentleman's bet, suggested that I try to prepare a difficult coin quiz using only the Guide Book as a reference. This I did, and believing that such a quiz might be of interest to Coin World readers I have presented it below.

If your only interest in numismatics is recent rolls and proof sets then continue to the next reading matter. If you have a cosmopolitan interest in American numismatics, then give it a try.

If you get 15 or more correct write a note to us at 70 Court street, Binghamton, New York. We would like to hear from you.

The Guidebook page containing the answer is indicated after each question. Complete answers are at the end of the quiz.

PRESENTING A NEW KIND OF COIN BOOK FOR ALL COLLECTORS, INVESTORS AND COLLECTOR INVESTORS!

UNCOVERED!

The prices of uncirculated U.S. Coins for each separate year since 1935! A fascinating year to year history of coin prices that will open your eyes! Learn what the yearly price change percentage has been on each coin. Many surprises in figures revealed!

WHAT WILL YOUR EXPENSIVE COLLECTION, YOUR COIN INVESTMENTS, BE WORTH IN THE YEARS AHEAD... WHAT ARE THEIR "MATURITY" DATES AND VALUES?

For the first time this priceless data is made available in "The Profit March Of Your Coins From 1935 To 1968." Here you will find a scientific and accurate scale of future values based upon what each coin has done in the past. Up until now such predictions were based on the mere pulling of a hypothetical figure out of the air. You'll see how coin prices change over the years, the price change percentages, coinage totals, projected prices from 1961 to 1968, comments on the future... on each and every uncirculated coin, roll, or proof set.

Reading this guide will leave you with a new respect for your investment.

You'll see what the prices were back in 1936, 1945, 1950... or any other year! How they have changed, startlingly, in the thirties, forties and fifties... and what they will be in the next four or eight years!

Up until now, the factors involved in coin futuristics have not been presented so there has been no yardstick with which to measure the possibilities. Now revealing pages mathematically prove that most investments in coins will, regardless of present confusion, produce future yields that will far exceed expectations!

Not only the coin investor, but the collector should have this guide in his possession! Collections have a way of growing and growing until they represent a tremendous investment. If you have such a valuable collection or have set aside rolls, you should know how long it will be before your coins are worth a certain amount of money... enough, perhaps, for college educations... travel... emergencies... or even partial retirement (it has been done). You'll get the answers when you have this unusual book before you. You will be shown the individual price pattern of each coin, the length of each cycle and the frequency of change. With this set pattern you can observe how long the upsurges and the downsurges lasted in the past and govern future actions accordingly.

"THE PROFIT MARCH OF YOUR COINS FROM 1935 TO 1968"

LEARN WHICH COINS ARE LIKELY TO INCREASE IN PRICE FIRST.
WHICH WILL OFFER THE BEST SECURITY OVER THE YEARS.

Inasmuch as the past is but a mirror of the future, it would behoove any coin collector or investor to seriously review the past price history! Such records have always been available in other investment fields! Now for the first time you have the same opportunity! Don't guess or worry any longer because of a lack of investment knowledge!

GET THE FIRST AND ONLY GUIDE OF ITS KIND!

An important event in the coin collecting and investing field. Dealers: write for quantity prices.

Accent On Youth For Ohio Show

Special prizes for young people will be awarded for coin displays in the 1961 Mansfield, Ohio, Hobby Show, sponsored by the Mansfield Exchange Club in the Y.M.C.A. next Saturday and Sunday, April 15 and 16, according to David Ott, general chairman of the show.

Intended primarily for boys and girls under 18, the show is also open to those over that age but competition will be separate, Ott said, with a separate list of awards.

Entry blanks may be obtained at the Y.M.C.A. or from Exchange Club members.

In addition to coins, there will be 11 other exhibit classes, including scrapbooks, miscellaneous collections, natural history, relics and antiques, stamps, drawings and paintings, crafts and handiwork, models, needlecraft, photography, and a amateur radio work. Exhibitors may enter any number of classes.

More than 6,000 persons saw the 1960 show which included more than 200 exhibits and demonstrations.

Kansas Club To Hold Auction

A coin auction was to feature the April meeting of the Manhattan, Kansas, Coin Club, set for Wednesday, April 12, at the Community House lounge, starting at 7:30 p. m.

At the March session, 49 members and guests saw slides on the topic "Coins with Special Significance".

specimens, if genuine, would be quite valuable.

A correspondent, Robert L. Chaffee, has recently furnished us a picture of a 1923-D dime in his possession. From the photograph his coin appears to be in Good or slightly better condition; similar in condition to others we have seen published from time to time.

The question is: are 1923-D dimes fabrications or are they genuine mint issues? The latter possibility seems doubtful, but it should be investigated. We would like to hear from other owners of these dimes. Does anyone own one in VF or better condition?

Most speculation and "investing" in recent years has been confined to recent rolls and Proof sets. . . items in which little or no numismatic knowledge is required to complete transactions.

I cannot help wondering how modern speculators would have fared in the 1860's when the hottest items were medals of George Washington or in the 1900's when the greatest popular demand was for Hard Times tokens.

Change of address form for Coin World

Coin World is borrowing—and benefiting—from Uncle Sam's experience in drafting an efficient change of address form.

A suggested government address change blank for the convenience of its readers is presented for Coin World readers and their convenience.

Readers may use this form to notify Coin World about a change of address.

To make the transition quickly so no issues will be delayed, subscribers are urged to give the former address or, ideally, paste in the address label from a copy of Coin World to get immediate attention by the circulation department.

The form is to be mailed to: Circulation Department, Coin World, P. O. Box 150, Sidney, Ohio.

Schulman Reports

Story Of Andorran Coin Concludes With Success!

(Editor's Note: Last week Hans M. F. Schulman developed a fascinating story about the trials and tribulations of producing the first Andorran dollar-sized commemorative coin. The New York numismatist concludes the saga herewith.)

By Hans M. F. Schulman

Well, we saw that the coins of Andorra were in the process of being struck at the mint in Utrecht, Holland, when suddenly the whole process was called off by order of the Ministry of Finance of the Netherlands. They felt that France or Spain may not like, maybe, these coins being struck and they decided it was better not to put themselves into a situation which could create an international problem.

Of course, that the coins were not going to compete with the French and Spanish coinage was quite clear.

How could 3,100 coins of which already almost 2000 were ordered by collectors compete with the local coinage of millions of francs and pesetas?

All my explanations to the Director of the Mint and to the Ministry of Finance were of no avail.

Now I understood why Medallic Art in New York could not strike the coins either. It must have been the same reason.

But finally the situation was solved and the coins are being struck at present in Germany and should be available to collectors very soon.

What happened with the Andorra coin since Munich is ready to strike with its dies awaiting, the machines ready to turn and the special "maillachort" metal available?

A beautiful essay was made and sent to the Andorran authorities for their final approval. This was many, many weeks ago . . . why wasn't any approval received in Munich? Was there something not exactly as per their instructions? Finally a cable was sent to the Andorran authorities to find out the delay again. The answer came in the form of hundreds of newspaper clippings.

The entire parliament and police force have been occupied since over two months with a most unusual "drama."

Every day meetings have taken place in the old parliament house in the Valley to solve the most important problem of the day; the problem of the main income in Andorra and the fear of losing it entirely. No other matter could come on the agenda until this would be completely solved.

Andorra's main income outside of the tourist summer season is from the radio station. Andorra's radio is one of the strongest on the European continent and can be heard all over. It is one of the few stations which has programs paid by sponsors and sells publicity announcements. The main markets nearby are France and Spain and until recently one program occupied itself with transmitting in the French language and the other in the Spanish language.

Recently the Spaniards have not liked the way the French program reported their news items and certainly even liked it less when they beamed political propaganda to Spain in Spanish language and the French had the same complaints the other way. Contracts had expired and new contracts had to be signed.

The French with the help of French government authorities came at once with a detailed contract that pleased the Andorrans; and then suddenly the Spaniards worried about their programs, came around with a contract that was much better and gave the Andorrans much larger profits. They even offered to run the French programs on a neutral bases at much lower costs and higher profits.

The French reported to their government and the Spaniards talked to the Bishop in Urgel, one of the co-princes.

Tension between the two delegations mounted day by day and the 12 man army was constantly busy keeping things from getting out of hand. The stations were under constant watch of special police which they had recruited for fear of sabotage.

In the parliament house every meeting started with prayers for "peace" but peace did not come and each side was threatening with invasion of their own police and army. . . but the last reports sent from Andorra is that the illustrious syndic, sort of executive power in Andorra, found a solution to it all.

It seems that everybody gets everything now and that nobody will do nothing against nobody. From this sentence it was a bit difficult to understand what the solution was but one thing was clear: That the French were not allowed to broadcast Spanish news in any language and the Spaniards not any French news in any language but they may offer all kinds of French or Spanish products for sale.

We now expect that Munich will soon hear about the striking and that the coins will soon be in the hands of the collectors. We draw the attention to the fact that there is a great interest in these coins and that the issue of only 3,100 pieces is very, very small.

The coins are issued with a short history in English, Catalan, Spanish and French attached to it and are sold for nine dollars or 40 Swiss francs.

Now a bit of history of the Principality of Andorra:

Parliament in Andorra was born on the 11th of February, 1419, when the bishop of Urgel gave the inhabitants of the Valley of Andorra the right to select certain aldermen called "prohom-bres" to form the Council which still functions under the rights and obligations set down by Francesco de Tovia in 1419.

In 1907 one of the most famous co-princes of Andorra was Cardinal Joan Benlloch y Vivo under whose reign the main roads were opened connecting Andorra with the outer world.

The coin will be released with a folder in four languages. We herewith reproduce the English language translation:

High in the Pyrenees mountains between France and Spain lies the tiny independent principality of Andorra, also called "Les Valls d'Andorra".

Ruled by a council of aldermen chosen by the 3,000 Andorrans and under the combined reign of two co-princes this beautiful mountain country has been independent for almost 1,200 years. Nowhere in the world can the visitor find the contrast of an almost feudal world together with the custom-free merchandise of the 20th century.

The co-princes are the president of France (now General Charles de Gaulle) and the bishop of Urgel with the seat in border town of Seo de Urgel.

Andorra is a tourist paradise and can be reached from Barcelona in five hours by car and from France in two hours from Bourg Madame through the breath taking mountain passes. In the winter it can only be reached from the Spanish side. No trains or planes disturb the beautiful tranquility of the scenery.

Everything can be bought in Andorra at fractions of what it costs in the neighboring countries because Andorra does not levy any taxes or duties.

Charlemagne in 785 A.D. put Armengol de Moncada, born Dapifer, Count of Urgel in charge of the "Valls de Andorra" and the history of Andorra began. The beautiful tombstones of a direct descendant of him, Armengol VII, Count of Urgel, and his wife, Dolciz of Foix, are at the Cloisters Museum in New York.

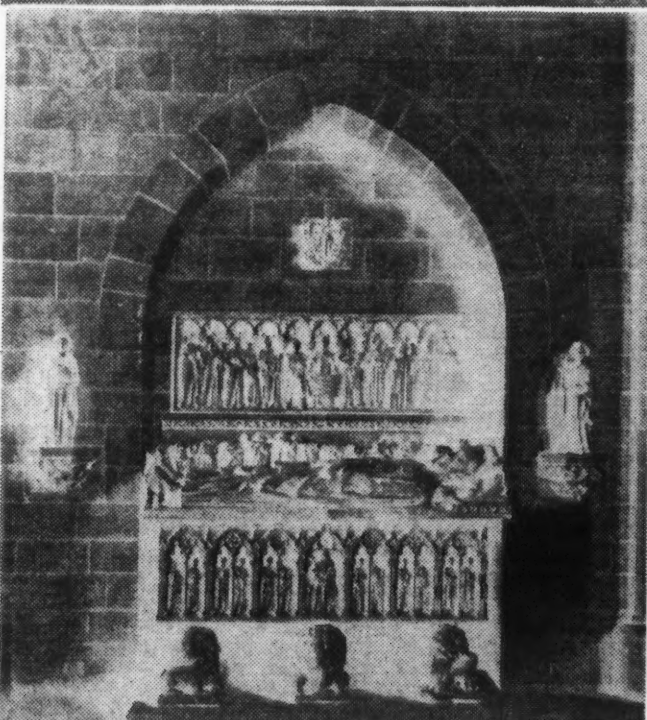

In 1419 Francesco de Tovia gave a self determination right to Andorra and established the council as it still is functioning today. Only once was Andorra occupied when Napoleon incorporated it into the French Empire under governor Viquier from 1806-1815 who paid 960 francs annually as a tribute.

To celebrate this continued freedom and independence in the troubled European world, the Andorran government has issued a

These photostats, taken from the guide book of the famous Cloisters Museum in New York, show the tombs of the descendants of Armengol de Moncada. Tombs of Armengol X and Dona Dulcia, wife of Armengol VII Spanish (Catalan), 1299-1314, are in the top photo. The other is the tomb of Armengol VII, Count of Urgel Spanish (Catalan), 1299-1314. Armengol VII was a direct descendant of Armengol de Moncada—and all the Armengols are from Andorra.

The arms of Andorra which were found on an old house in Barcelona in 1761 served as a design for the reverse of the coin. Unfortunately the arms were wrong because of the disposition of the cows is contrary to heraldic regulations. The designer, Dr. Breitholt, had to change the arms on order of Andorran authorities; they were greatly amused that they had used the old stone as an example—the one example with the wrong arms!

Guthrie Coinarama Success

More than a thousand people attended the Guthrie, Okla., Coin Club's annual "Coinarama", held March 26 at the American Legion, with Ralph Osborne, bourse chairman, reporting one of the biggest shows he had attended in the midwest, excluding state conventions.

Most of the thousand people attending were from out of town, in spite of the weather and storm warnings, according to Mrs. Ted Robertson, secretary of the club.

There was a limit of 22 bourse tables; these were sold out and some applications had to be turned away.

This is the second show in the four-year history of the club which has Dick Fogarty, state representative to Congress among its members. Bill Dale, of Edmond, Okla., was present for the show, representing the Oklahoma historical display.

At the club's most recent meeting, Jake Sureck, Oklahoma City, was the guest speaker. He discussed coin collecting in general, how to decide the type of collection and care of coins.

E. L. McCarty displayed large cents and large dollar bills; Mrs. Thomas Freeman uncirculated cents and dimes; Mrs. Ted Robertson, double shift and 1960-P nickels.

Officers of the club for 1961 are Thomas Freeman, president; Bill Richards, vice-president; Mrs. Ted Robertson, secretary; and LeRoy Leslie, treasurer.

Committee chairmen for the year are Ralph Osborne, membership; Floyd Ray, program; Warren Van Hoozer, publicity and reservations; Mrs. Betty Tillery, social activities; and Cleo McDowell, historian.

Gold Rarity

This coin is so rare it is not listed in catalogs. A 50 Pound gold piece, it was one of only 25 minted in 1935 to commemorate the silver jubilee of King George V of England. This one is owned by W. Croot of Wolverhampton, England.

commemorative coin with the old denomination of 50 diners or the equivalent of a dollar U.S.A. today.

Prof. Breitholz Hinz, the famous Hamburg sculptor designed the bust of Charlemagne after studying effigies in the Museum in Barcelona; 3,100 coins have been struck in Munich, Germany, in Maillehort, a nickel-silver alloy.

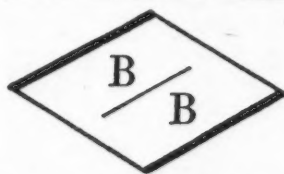

The first Andorran dollar size coin commemorates that Charlemagne granted a nobleman the territory of Andorra as his serfdom.

Conductors Ingenious

Civil war era train conductors wrapped fractional currency around their fingers — a different finger for each value — in order to speed the "change" process.

Half Dollar Imitated

An 1853-O half dollar was coined without arrows and rays, but it is extra rare and has been imitated by removal of the arrows and rays from the "normal" coin.

speaker at the April 18 meeting of the Association, to be held at the Mewata Recreation Hut, 1200 block of 6th Avenue, S.W., Calgary, starting at 8 p. m.

Stewart's topic is expected to be Canadian Tokens.

At the last meeting, members heard a talk on Danish West Indies coinage, by J. B. Westergaard, accompanied by a display.

Medal Distribution To Be Club Project

Final details for the distribution of the Excelsior Springs, Mo., commemorative medallion were slated for discussion at the April meeting of the Excelsior Springs Coin Club, scheduled for Monday, April 10, at the Oaks Hotel, starting at 7:30 p. m.

While the medal is the responsibility of the local Chamber of Commerce, all distribution of it outside the Excelsior Springs area has been turned over to the Coin Club, according to a report from Frances E. Parks, secretary.

Coin Week Plans In Committee Hands

The Virginia Peninsula Coin Club of Newport News, Va., has appointed a seven member committee to be in charge of the club's observance of National Coin Week. The committee comprises: Francis Gorton, J. E. Gorton, Bobby Spears, Bernie Littlepage, Henry Sawyer, R. E. Blount and Hiram Bowers. The club will insure the members' displays during the week.

Ireland Makes Coins

The Republic of Erie began striking its own coins in 1928.

Spring Coin Show At Enid May 20-21

The Enid, Okla., Coin Club is sponsoring a spring Coin Show on May 20 and 21, to be held at the Youngblood Hotel in Enid, according to a report from the chairman, Eber W. Higgins, Box 1211, Enid, Okla. There will be a bourse and exhibits.

Last fall's show by the same club, held November 5 and 6, drew more than 3,000 visitors.

Missouri Club Will Celebrate

The Central Missouri Coin Club of Sedalia will celebrate its first birthday anniversary at its next meeting, scheduled for Thursday, April 13, in the Pettis County Court House, starting at 7:30 p. m.

The club was organized in April, 1960, with 18 charter members. At the last meeting, the attendance was 61 members and guests, with six applications for membership received.

Stevenson Top Coin Week Officer

I. K. Stevenson, vice president of the Sarasota, Fla., Coin Club, has been named chairman of the club's committee for National Coin Week. Displays are planned in a number of local banks and stores.

Final plans are expected to be made at the club's next meeting, set for Monday, April 17, in the National Bank of Sarasota, starting at 7:30 p. m.

ONE MAN'S OPINION:

On 1961 coins it may be said to be reasonably true that there should be more coins later in the year around November. Our prices will drop, of course. But, if you wait until November to buy, what happens if the Mint closes before then? The dies are changed? Metal becomes hard to get or is rationed for the Mint? Who knows what can happen? And, if it does, what price then can the man who bought today sell for? One thing is true, the rest of the countries of the world suffer from increasing inflation. They will need more and more coinage, and our diplomatic people are firm in their position that it helps our prestige abroad to make coinage for the smaller nations. The conclusion is inevitable, is it not, that Philadelphia coinage will be smaller and smaller!

ORDER NOW! SEE NEWS STORY ON PAGE ONE, APRIL 6th ISSUE!

DEAR CUSTOMER...

We were first out with the 1961 Denver cents (remember), and we will be first out with the balance of new coins . . . Get the advantage of early strikes, die changes, etc.! ORDER NOW!

We are of the opinion that we will be able to buy for our customers whatever coins we need of all denominations no later than the end of April. WE CANNOT AND DO NOT HAVE DEFINITE SHIPPING DATES AS OF THIS WRITING! We have a fairly large quantity of orders placed already with us and these orders must be filled first, as these customers have already sent us their money . . . ORDER NOW SO YOUR ORDER CAN BE FILLED IN SEQUENCE.

Read the news story on our effort to get new 1961 coins for you. It is printed on page one in April 6 issue of Coin World.

Lutheran Coins Rich In Symbols

Martin Luther, Reformation Prominent In Art Subjects

By Mrs. Loraine Burdick
Puyallup, Wash.

Probably no Protestant denomination has so many related coins as the Lutheran. Both in money and medals, they make a fascinating collection.

These are coins available today which were used in the days of Martin Luther, and possibly even passed through his hand.

Saxony in Germany was the electorate of Johann Frederick, otherwise known as Frederick the Wise or Sage. He was a prince with power to assist in the election of the emperor of the Holy Roman Empire. He was friend and protector to Luther.

Some time between 1507 and 1525, the Elector issued a so-called "Klappmützen Taler". On its face "Johann", as the inscription reads, wears his Elector's cloak, a crown on his head, and a sword on his shoulder.

On the reverse, the taler shows Frederick who retained the power and brother, George, who was called Duke of Saxony and also assisted the Reformation and its disputes with Roman authority though he opposed Luther. Brother John, the Steadfast, is also mentioned on the coin. About 1541, a quarter taler also showed the pair.

A medal, undated, was issued to honor Frederick the Wise. His bust is regally garbed while the reverse has soldiers fighting in the name of God. The top of the medal shows where once it was fastened to a chain for wearing.

A silver taler inscribed "Frederick Elector of Emperors" and "John, Duke of Saxony, 1525," is a little puzzling. The face on the left must surely be the elected Emperor, Charles V, and the right portrait is Jphann Frederick.

Charles V appears on a regular coin of the Holy Roman Empire where he dressed as a typical Caesar and is so titled. The reverse carries a symbolic portrait of Piety, though he refused all papal pressures to sieze Luther and instead let him leave Worms in peace. It should be the Protestants who called him Pious in this act.

Luther at Worms is the subject of a German medal of 1921 which commemorates the Reformation. Though 1½ inches in diameter, it is simply made of aluminum and costs only about twenty-five cents. On the obverse, the portrait of Luther in professorial garb is surrounded by, "Worms, 18, 4, 1521."

This obviously refers to Luther's defense at the Diet on April 17 and 18 when he declared the now-famous words, "Here I stand. . ." and refused to recant his beliefs or deny his writings. The medal has Nurnberg Church on the reverse with the date, "18, 4, 1921", when the 400th centenary occurred.

Recent German coins also picture Luther and Frederick. In 1933, upon the 450th anniversary of Luther's birth, the German Republic used a portrait on both the five and two mark silver coins. The former is shown here but they differ only in size and denomination. The reverse of this coin is the eagle. The 1917 three marks shows Frederick and sells for a mere $350.

There are also a good many older coins which are associated with the Reformation. In 1617, Worms celebrated the 100th anniversary with an open Bible under a candlestick: Christ, the Light of the World, and an open Bible for all people. The obverse is a lighthouse over the city shield, for from this city the light shone.

Erfurt in 1631 released a Purim Taler. It emphasized the Old Testament which the Reformation had publicized along with the New. The Hebrew word for Purim is placed in light rays while the inscription commemorates the victory of Gustavus Adolphus who helped the German Protestants. This victory is, thus, compared to Queen Esther's victory over Haman and the Jews' victory over their enemies. Adolphus also appeared on a Swedish daler that showed Christ, the Savior and Hope of the world.

The German medal for the Peace of Westphalia, dated 1651, used a fig tree and hen with chickens to symbolize the peace. The former comes from Micah's prophecy in 4:4 — "But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of hosts hath spoken it." Perhaps the hen and chicks are to remind all of the lament of Christ when he wept over Jerusalem, ". . . How often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!" Matthew 23:37.

Two Saxony talers of 1718 fit in as both commemorate the 200th anniversary of the Reformation. One shows the all-seeing eye of God above a forest and the other has Luther's bust.

FOREIGN BILLS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

This may be your last chance to obtain representative foreign bills from countries that are being absorbed, overrun, combined and wiped out. We have a large stock of certain issues and in many instances small supply so we would suggest that in any country not listed that you might inquire about, send inquiry in duplicate.

We have described the bills so that "N" means New and "O" means used but in very fine condition.

to honor King Frederick as well as the Reformation and its gospel.

In 1574, Leyden issued a silver show taler. It has Sennacherib and his army fleeing from Jerusalem and refers to the story in II Kings 19. The Spanish fleeing from Leyden have been captured on the coin's reverse and this seeming miraculous deliverance of the starving town seemed to Leyden an intervention of God such as had turned Sennacherib back from Jerusalem.

I don't have this taler in my collection but when any piece proves too difficult to find or too costly, it can be replaced by a very fine photograph from The American Numismatic Society, Broadway between 155th and 156th Streets, New York 32, New York. These photographs are especially helpful when exhibiting a collection.

A final coin related to Lutherans is the Swedish two kronor of 1938. The reverse is the Kalmare Nyckel, flagship of the Swedish colonizing in Delaware. With these settlers, the Lutheran Church became an integral part of a new country, just as it had helped lead men to political and religious freedom in the Old World.

Hawaiian Coins Topic For Club

The Lawndale, Calif., Coin Club has scheduled its next meeting for Sunday, April 16, at the Western Cafe, 15516 South Western Avenue, in Gardena, Calif., starting at 2 p.m., according to a club report.

At the last meeting, guest speaker was Carl Quigley who talked on Hawaiian coins and illustrated with displays from his own collection. The club added 13 new members to its roster and welcomed nine guests at the session. Theme for the session was "Cents", with all the auction material being of that denomination, as well as most of the special awards.

First London Mint

The first London Mint was established by Carausius, and closed about 330 A. D.

Burial Ground Coins Topic

Burt Nash is scheduled to be the main speaker at the April 18 meeting of the Rochester, N. Y., Numismatic Association. He is to talk on coins that have been dug up in and around New York State, in Indian burial grounds.

This will be the 1057th meeting of the association, and will be held in the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences, 3rd floor meeting room, starting at 8 p.m. A bourse will follow the meeting. Previous to the regular meeting, the Rochester Association had scheduled its annual banquet on Saturday, April 15, at the Triton Party House, 1443 Main Street East. On the program were an auction, exhibits, dancing, cards, and other entertainment.

Patterns Useful

Pattern coins are coins used to demonstrate a new design, a proposed change in a coin's design already in use, or to illustrate a new denomination.

Confusin' Profession Contributes Complicated Medal, Token Issues

World Of Palming Coins Adds Numismatic Mystics

By George J. Fuld

In a recent issue of this paper, our friend, Russell Rulau, be-moaned the fact that there was so little literature on the subject of magician's tokens and medals. First, let me mention that there is a very fine article on magician's tokens published in the Numismatic Review Vol. 1, No. 2, September, 1943, by John Mulholland, where several pages of fine illustrations show many of these pieces. Also, in the April, 1901, issue of The Numismatist, Dr. B. P. Wright lists the rare magician token of Martinka and Co. of New York as No. 1540 and shows an illustration of the piece. Other magician pieces are also described by Dr. Wright.

Actually there are quite a variety of magician's pieces, and I believe they have been described in several of the magic society journals, although I do not have exact references to the articles. Our own collection consists of over 110 different pieces, and if there is sufficient interest, we would be happy to describe the pieces in a detailed article in the quarterly journal of the SMT&OPMC.

Apparently the first modern day magician's piece was issued in honor of Herr Alexander in 1847 and was engraved by the famous medalist, Charles Cushing Wright. It is listed in Adams book on Store Cards, as N.Y. No. 47 and comes in both copper and brass. A specimen is illustrated herewith.

Another interesting series of pieces were issued by Martinka and Co., manufacturers of magical apparatus in New York about 1875. The first pieces issued, to be used as palming coins, had Martinka's advertisement on one side and a magician on the other side, inscribed MUNDUS VULT

DECIPI DECAPIATUR (which freely translated means "The world wishes to be deceived, let it be deceived"). This rare piece is the one alluded to above as Wright 1540. This type, with Martinka's advertisement was only issued for one year, and the next series showed the magician on both sides, with the same inscription—these were issued in three sizes and five metals and are quite common. This is also the piece described by Kurth as No. 81A. Several of these types are also shown in the article.

Another interesting token was issued by Professor King, the wizard ventriloquist, and was listed also by Dr. Wright in 1901 as No. 1486. This piece strongly resembles a Civil War cent, but it is definitely not a Civil War piece, but was issued about 1870. This piece is also illustrated herewith.

First modern-day magician's piece honoring Herr Alexander.

Magician's piece issued by C. Milton Chase of Boston.

However, there are definitely two Civil War tokens, that are undoubtedly magician's pieces. They are listed under Cincinnati, Ohio as Fuld Ohio 165AC. They are in copper, reeded edge, and one type shows the regular 1864 Indian head die (Fuld No. 75). The inscription on one of the pieces reads, CONSULERE / GENERI / HOMINUM / HO HI WHANG B.C. 129374 On the other side, the inscription is MAGI GENII These are clearly Civil War tokens, but were not listed in the original Hetrich & Gutttag work, but were first listed by Joseph Barnett in the 1944 Numismatic Review, where the pieces were attributed to Cincinnati.

Still another magician's piece was listed by Dr. Wright in the April, 1898, Numismatist as No. 164, the piece issued by C. Milton Chase of Boston. The piece is also listed by Adams and in Storer's "Numismatics of Massachusetts." The piece is inscribed C MILTON CHASE MECHANICIAN BOSTON On the reverse is a magician, with inscription, PRO ARTE MAGICA NE CEDE MALIS The piece comes in nickel, and the more common types shows a target inscribed on the eagle's breast.

There are a number of foreign pieces, two of which are shown herewith from London, one of Hanley's, Oxford street, London, and one of Charlton which advertised his show in 1871 at the Croydon theater.

There are numerous other pieces, issued by such firms as A. Roterberg, Lyons Magic Shop, Sherm's of Bridgeport, Chicago Magic Co. and many more. One type commonly met with is the Mysto Magic series, used as part of the Gilbert Co. (of New Haven) magic sets. These pieces often come as shell pieces, for use as palming coins, or with metal pins attached, so that the coin will stick to clothing for sleight of hand tricks. The Mysto Magic tokens were originally manufactured by the Scovil Manufacturing Co. of Waterbury, Conn.

A number of famous magicians either issued palming coins or tokens—people such as Thurston, Tarbell, Cortini, Mulholland and the Fays.

An interesting story about Professor Young is told by Mulholland in his article. Professor Young went so far in his effort to cut down the investment in the money catching act as to make counterfeit half dollars.

He was brought to trial for this breach of the law and pleaded that the coins were made for his act only and he had been careful never to permit any of them to be passed as currency. After agreeing to make no more, and having those in his act confiscated, he was given a suspended sentence. He made the half dollar of a lead alloy and they were reproductions of the 1858 New Orleans mint issue. We have seen these counterfeits from time to time, so they were obviously not all confiscated. Mulholland also states that spielmarkes, of German origin, were also used as palming pieces by 19th century magicians, but because of their odd size they met with little favor.

In closing this brief article, I would like to quote Mulholland:

"Magician's tokens and medals are rather confusing to classify. But what can be expected when they are made by those whose profession is based on confusion!"

First Issue Of Quarterly Bulletin Out

Volume I, Number I of the Society of Token, Medal and Obsolete Paper Money Collectors' Quarterly Bulletin has reached its charter members, according to an announcement today by its editor, Dr. George Fuld, Baltimore.

The 18-page Bulletin, punched for binding, contains details of the founding of the five-month-old society, its first official medal plus a progress report on various organizational details including a charter membership of over 300.

An illustrated article on embossed or shell store cards by Russell Rulau and Ralph A. Mitchell begins in the initial quarterly which is obtainable by members only.

A new comprehensive listing of American game counters is forthcoming as well as a bibliography of articles on obsolete paper money. A book bibliography is found in the first issue listing volumes of interest to medal, token and obsolete paper money collectors.

The organization will be finalized at an annual meeting, to be held in Atlanta in August during the American Numismatic Association convention. Officers will be named and by-laws, incorporation and other details will be completed.

The present pro-tem slate of officers includes:

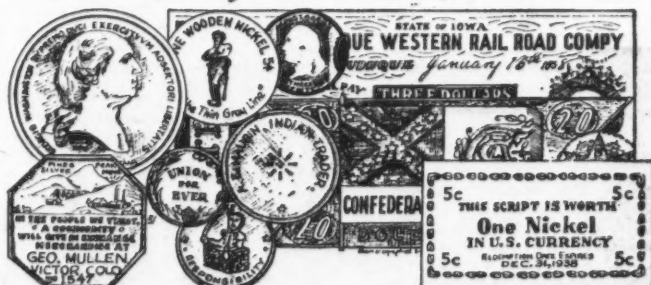

President, Dr. George Fuld, Baltimore; first vice president, James J. Curto, Grosse Pointe, Mich.; second vice president, Max M. Schwartz, New York City; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Lucy A. Kelly, McKeesport, Pa.; curator-historian, Clifford Misher, Vandalia, Mich.

Board of governors: John Ford, New York City; Paul M. Fouts, Seattle; Harley L. Freeman, Ormond Beach, Fla.; Melvin Fuld, Baltimore; Paul Hamm, San Diego, Calif.; and Art Kagin, Des Moines, Iowa.

Editor, Dr. Fuld; assistant editors, Nathan Eglit, Chicago; Fred R. Marchhoff, Elgin, Ill.; Ralph Mitchell, Fullerton, Calif.; Eric P. Newman, St. Louis, Mo.; Russell Rulau, San Diego, Calif.; E. Ward Russell, Silver Springs, Md.

Legal counsel, Ellis Edlowitz, Washington, D. C., and Harry Lessin, Norwalk, Conn.

The Society Of Token, Medal &

Obsolete Paper Money Collectors

Editor: Dr. George Fuld, Box 6047; Baltimore, Md.

Three Hundred Charter Members

More than 300 charter members were recorded for the Society of Medal, Token and Obsolete Paper Money Collectors at the expiration date for charter membership on March 31, Dr. George J. Fuld, of Baltimore, first president, announced today.

Membership is still open, Dr. Fuld pointed out—dues are $2 a year plus a $1 initiation fee. Mrs. Lucy A. Kelly, 3410 Ford Street, McKeesport, Pa., is accepting applications.

A free commemorative medal will be issued by the society for its first annual meeting, to be held in conjunction with the American Numismatic Association convention in Atlanta in August.

This medal will be mailed free to members with the summer issue of the organization's quarterly bulletin, club officers said.

The medal was executed by the Wendell-Northwestern Inc. exclusively for the Society in bronze; none will be sold. Members may subscribe to a silver medal, one to a collector, at $3 a copy. Deadline for orders, to be placed with the secretary, is July 1.

First issue of the quarterly bulletin has gone to press, according to Dr. Fuld. The 16-page publication contains the first installment of an illustrated article on embossed business cards, a bibliography of tokens and medals, details on the formation of the society, its aims, purposes, and new issues of medals and tokens. It is the hope of the officers that the bulletin can be enlarged to six times a year in the near future, the president revealed.

The SMT&OPMC has proposed to the board of governors of the American Numismatic Association that the society sponsor awards for the best exhibit in two categories at the annual A.N.A. convention.

A suitably engraved plaque would be awarded for the best token and obsolete paper currency fields. The Burton B. Saxton award for the best medal exhibit is already an A.N.A. presentation.

Club Exhibits In Gallery

Sunday, April 16, will see the start of a two-week exhibition of coin collections at the Arnot Art Gallery in Elmira, N. Y., sponsored by the Chemung County Coin Association of Elmira.

Included among the exhibits will be the collections of members of the Elmira club, and also those of other area collectors, particularly members of the Crystal City Coin Club of Corning, N. Y., as well as portions of the Matthias Arnot collection which is kept at the Arnot Gallery.

A feature of the exhibit is expected to be an original design for the Jefferson nickel which was entered in the national contest when that coin was planned in the 1930's. This design was the entry of Ernfred Anderson, director of the Arnot Art Gallery, and was one of the 50 finalist in a field of 390 entries.

The Jefferson nickel was the first United States minor coin design to be selected in open competition, and the winner was Felix Schlag who received an award of $1,000 for his design.

Special precautions are being taken against theft at the exhibition, with a police patrol on an hourly basis, and the Gallery carries insurance up to $10,000 on all exhibits. Exhibits will be in locked and sealed cases at all times.

Tri-County's Club Transfers

The Tri-County Coin Club of Rock Hill, S. C., was slated to hold its first meeting in its new quarters, the Parks and Recreation Department building in Confederate Park, on the evening of Monday, April 10, according to a report from club secretary J. Frank Hall, of Fort Mill.

The Tri-County club has now become affiliated with and is sponsored by the Rock Hill Parks and Recreation Department.

Bismarck CC Selling Dakota Souvenir Tokens

"Custer Gold," the nickname for the Dakota Territory Centennial souvenir token, has sold like real gold, according to officials of the Bismarck Chamber of Commerce, Bismarck, N. D., one of the distributing agencies for the commemorative "coins."

The tokens went on sale in Bismarck and Mandan, N. D., in late February, and the initial issuance of 10,000 was sold out locally in four days.

It was planned to place them on sale nationally March 2, the official anniversary date of the Dakota Territory, but the design of the token was so popular that 30,000 more had to be reordered within two weeks.

Now, at long last, there are enough on hand to warrant publicizing their sale nationally, with no limit to be placed on the number issued.

The illustrations on the token depict the old, the intermediate, and the modern in the history of the territory and state. Custer's colorful public service dates back to the Civil War. Special emphasis is given to him and the drama depicting his life because he "blazed the trail" for the settlement of Dakota Territory by the white man, first, by discovering gold in the Black Hills in 1874 and, second, by his fearless offensive against hostile Indian tribes in which he sacrificed his life in 1876.

To distinguish his coin from other centennial coins and because Custer gave his life in a struggle which arose over the domain of the Black Hills gold fields, the communities of Bismarck and Mandan will refer to it as "Custer Gold" during the Centennial year.

The Bismarck Chamber of Commerce will fill mail orders for the coins at 50c each. Mint-sealed in plastic envelopes, they sell for 75c each or three for $2. Only money orders or cash will be accepted, according to Arthur Leno, manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Vacationers will receive a history lesson this summer via the historical outdoor drama, "Trail West," (Custer's route). By W. T. Chichester and F. G. Walsh, it is to be presented at Mandan, N. D., on U. S. highways 10 and 94 at the General George Armstrong Custer Memorial Amphitheatre, Fort Lincoln State Park, Wednesday through Sunday in July and August.

Birthday Party Fort Collins Event

The Fort Collins, Colo., Coin Club was scheduled to hold its annual birthday dinner on Saturday, April 8, at the Odd Fellows Hall in Fort Collins.

An all-day affair, the party was to include an auction, entertainment, and bourse with free tables for dealers, climaxed by the banquet.

Paris Club Meets In Community Room

Next meeting of the Tennessee Valley Coin Club of Paris, Tenn., is scheduled for Monday, April 17, to be held in the community room of the Public Utilities building, East Washington Street, in Paris, starting at 7 p.m.

Writer Shook Over Big Bills

Dick West, United Press International columnist, told his readers across the nation last week of his outraged emotions when he read the U. S. Bureau of Engraving and Printing had discontinued printing $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000 bills.

He hopped into a cab and descended upon Henry J. Holtzclaw, director of the Bureau. (His cab driver couldn't change a $10,000 bill.)

Holtzclaw in an effort to soothe the writer's ruffled feelings explained the bureau has not discontinued the production of four, five and six-figure currency — it just hasn't made any recently because the supply exceeds the demand.

The Bureau head said nothing larger than a $100 bill has been printed since 1945.

Grading School April 12 For Seymour, Ind., Society

The first session of the "Grading School" planned by the Seymour, Ind., Numismatic Society, was scheduled to be on Indian head cents, at the Wednesday, April 12, meeting of the group at the Swope Memorial Art Gallery of the Seymour public library, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Bill Willey and club president Phil Cordes were slated to be the "teachers". They planned to show the difference between various grades from "Fair" to "Uncirculated," using as examples coins brought by members.

As a text they were to use Brown and Dunn, supplemented with other suggestions. Purpose of the "school" is partly to help in the education of the members and partly to help standardize grading for club auctions.

Another innovation for the club, expected to be started at the same meeting, was the use of "name tags", to be worn by each member both as a means of identification and to promote better acquaintance and fellowship at the meetings. The tags were to be obtained from Dale Weasner at the start of each session, and returned to him at the close.

New auction rules have been put into effect, inaugurated at the March meeting. These include:

A special Junior Auction for junior members only is held prior to the main auction. Anyone may offer items for sale, with a limit of three lots, but only junior members may bid. No commission is charged by the club.

At the main auction, five percent is charged, with a limit of 10 lots per members, with both junior and senior members eligible to bid.

Admiral Dodson Will Be Speaker

Rear Admiral O. H. Dodson (Ret.), president of the American Numismatic Association and director of the Money Museum of the National Bank of Detroit, Mich., is scheduled to be the main speaker at the April 17 meeting of the Santa Barbara, Calif., Coin Club, set for the Garden room of the Carillo Hotel in Santa Barbara, starting at 7:30 p.m.

This program had been previously announced for March 20, but had to be postponed to the new date.

Coin Exhibit To Hold April Display

The Janesville, Wisc., Coin Club has scheduled a Coin Exhibit for April 22 and 23, at the Janesville Y.M.C.A. Chairman for the Show is Lyle L. Thomas, 831 Harding Street, Janesville.

Paducah Club Meets At Station

Sunday, April 16, is scheduled for the next meeting of the Western Kentucky Coin Club of Paducah, set for Brooks Bus Station, 205 South 5th, in Paducah, starting at 2 p.m.

At the last meeting, members heard Presly Gates talk on 1960 Mint errors in the Lincoln cent.

"I don't know about these references for coin approvals... this guy sent in a pool hall manager's name, his bookie's address, and the name of a liquor store owner!"

Central States Convention Dates Near

A "Big League" coin convention is in store for Central States numismatists when the 19th Central States numismatic convention is held April 28-30 at the Minneapolis Nicollet Hotel, Paul E. Olson, general chairman said today.

Olson pointed with pride to convention plans as he mentioned the Minnesota Twins and the Minnesota Vikings in the same breath as he applied the term, "Big League."

A total of 100 display cases have been ordered for the convention, Olson said. After the convention members of the Northwest Coin Club will have an opportunity to purchase some of the cases.

Banquet prizes will include many numismatic books as well as other prizes. Following is a list of some of the books to be given as special prizes: "Paper Money of the United States" and "Gold Coins of the World" by Robert Friedberg; "The Four A.N.A. Reprints;" "Books on Roman and Greek Coins" by Klawans; "World's Most Popular Coins;" "Reinfeld's Treasury of World's Coins;" "Coin Collectors Handbook;" "Hawaii Coinage;" "Patriotic Tokens;" "Silver Dollars of Africa;" "Confederate Paper Handbooks and Guides."

Subscriptions to numismatic papers and periodicals will also be given.

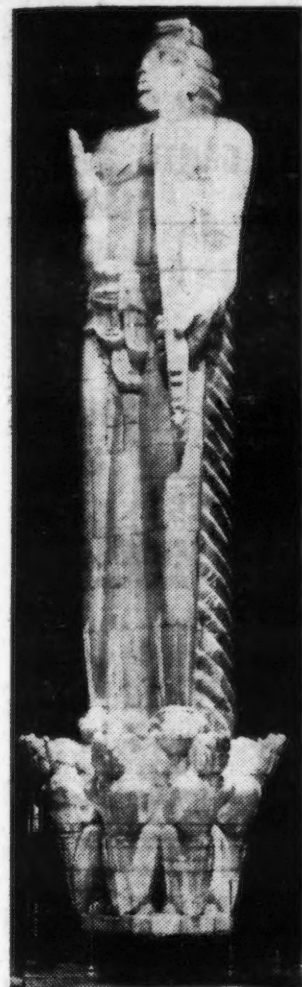

Nick Kocisko, publicity director for the convention, said visitors will have the opportunity of seeing many outstanding sights in both St. Paul and Minneapolis including the Indian God of Peace at St. Paul.

This symbolic figure is located in the Memorial Concourse of the St. Paul City Hall and Court House.

Designed by Carl Milles, noted Swedish sculptor, the figure is of white Mexican onyx and weighs 55 tons. It stands approximately 44 feet high.

The eight-foot - high base has five figures of crouching Indians smoking pipes of peace. Smoke rises in a thin veil about the dominant feature.

Fair To Very Fine Philosophy Lies Behind Collection Of Varieties

By James G. Johnson

The mail seems to be about equally divided between "varieties" and "grading", indicating that those two topics are prominently on the minds of a good percentage of collectors these days. For the past several weeks I have talked about grading and it is time to give that subject a rest. So this week it's back to varieties.

J. Johnson

Before I go into specific cases, I'd like to look back over the times when Jimmy and I were working together on our collection, to see what our philosophy or thinking was on the matter of varieties.

Of course, we started out filling

Whitman folders, like most beginners. When occasionally a folder had an extra hole for a variety, we took it for granted that we had to fill that hole, too, to complete the series. As, for example, the small and large date 2-cent coins. But we never considered saving varieties for their own sakes.

Then in looking over some 1934 quarters to pick the best one for our folder, we saw what we thought was a difference in the thickness of the date. So we took a few of them to the next meeting of the Akron Coin Club, and asked our friend, C. D. Clark, then club secretary, about them.

He said he knew of no difference of that sort, that the manner of striking or wear could show some differences. But he did say that there were light and heavy motto varieties. We found we had a few light motto quarters, so we tossed them in a box and let them stay there.

Later on, we saw a "filler" paragraph in a coin magazine discussing the relative rarity in uncirculated condition of those two varieties, and still later I spotted in an auction catalogue a light motto listed for sale with "scarce" after it. When we asked Clark about values, he said there might be some difference when in uncirculated condition, but he didn't think there was, otherwise.

So we didn't worry about values, but just in a sort of mild way whenever we happened to notice a light motto 1934 quarter, we tossed it in the box, and thought no more of them. They are still there. If they should ever get catalogue "recognition", then we will know what we have, and might dig some out to trade for other things we don't have. Until that time they will probably stay there. If we get "hard up", we can always spend them.

I made mention of the variety some time ago, merely to illustrate the point that some coin varieties have always existed without anybody taking the trouble to study and catalogue them. Some collectors know about them. Several readers caught me up on it and said they have also saved those quarters, and had spotted some other varieties of 1934, as well.

From that, came the 1934 quarter club. I am in favor of it because I am in favor of people studying their coins and knowing what they have. But I think it right that the information should be available to any collector who wants to interest himself in a particular series. Why should such studies be confined to pre-Civil War coinage?

The fact that so much handwork in the early days was conducive to errors and varieties merely multiplies the chance of error, to my mind. A perfect strike from a perfect die would be the exception. But it is interesting to consider how many mistakes actually were made, which is why I am a "student" of Newcomb varieties of large cents.

However, with so much machinery in use today, the chance of error is considerably less, so when mistakes or die varieties do show up, I think they should be recognized by whatever "authorities" we have. I am not talking here about missing digits or cracked skulls. They are not mistakes or varieties, but defective dies which is another matter.

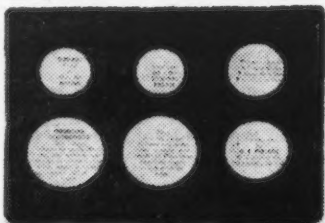

If anybody wants to collect the product of defective dies, let him; and if anybody wants to attempt to study and catalogue such products, and at least one man, E. G. Jewett, has, to a minor degree, let him and more power to him. It is at least an honest attempt to study a series, even though from a limited aspect.

Before I get too far away from the 1934 quarter, I want to add the name of Larry G. Freeman, Parma, Ohio, to the ranks of our club. He gave me no details, but said he has spotted six types and is still looking. I am waiting to get more definite statistics from you club members before I call a meeting in the column. For those who "tuned in late", I refer you to this column in the February 2 issue.

Going back to where I was before I interrupted myself, I am in no position to cast aspersions on people who collect the products of defective dies. After all, that is what the 3-legged Buffalo (Continued on Page 35)

EASY TO USE — FAST
ECONOMICAL
ACTUALLY CLEANS IN SECONDS

Useful for cleaning all kinds of coins, but particularly adapted to cleaning coins of copper or nickel.

Does not add shine but brings out natural color, including original brilliance if it is still there under tarnish or coating. Tarnish vanishes and dull or dark uncirculated coins become brilliant uncirculated coins. It does this in seconds. You will be amazed.

This product, the result of years of experiment, can be used safely on valuable coins to improve their appearance and increase their value.

On sale in many leading stores in 4-oz. bottles, with full directions, at $1.00.

If your dealer does not yet have it, send us $1.00 for a 3-oz. bottle (enough to clean hundreds of coins), carefully packed, unbreakable bottle, postpaid to any address in the U.S. or Canada.

The appearance of worn coins, large cents, small cents, etc., can be greatly improved by "highlighting", (contrasting light and dark). Use the Victory Miracle Cloth for this only 50c postpaid.

SPECIAL OFFER TO DEALERS

We want you to try "CCC" on your counter. It Sells! Send $4.00 for six 4-oz. bottles (postpaid in the U.S.).

Fair-Fine . . .

is; also, the "broken nose" Mercury dimes to which I have referred before. I am collecting a set of them, or trying to. I am not concerned with their value, however, but just feel that it is an interesting or amusing thing to do.

In this connection, Wayne H. Vogler of Tonkawa, Okla., sent me a picture, or rather two of them, one of which is printed here. The other is a 1957-D Lincoln cent with the "S" missing in the word "States" on the reverse.

The cent is an example of a filled die, and is interesting to "Fido" collectors. I have referred to that word recently in a paragraph which was accidentally put in the Clearinghouse instead of here, and I will define it below).

The dime in the picture has a misshapen d a t e, with the "g" looking like a "3". That is caused either by a dent in the coin at that point or by a partially filled die. It is difficult to tell without seeing the coin.

What immediately interested me, however, was the fact that the dime is a very nice example of a "broken nose". How well it reproduces here, I can't tell at this writing, but in the photograph it shows up exceedingly well. This is also a "Fido", a term I think is more inclusive than "error" if not as technical. But it is a "likeable" Fido, which some of them are not.

And for the definition of that word, which I have been using for some years to cover a box of odds and ends, I refer you to a booklet by E. V. Wallace. He wrote about "Freaks, Irregulars, Defects and Oddities" in the Lincoln cent, long before Kolman or Jewett. If you note the first letters of each word, they spell "Fido".

Incidentally, that just might be why some people call a bad coin a "dog". And with that, I'll play Arab and silently sneak away, for this week.

Loren Ross Heads Georgia Coin Club

Tuesday, April 18, is scheduled for the next meeting of the Murray County Coin Club of Chatsworth, Ga., to be held in the Chatsworth City Hall, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Officers recently elected include Loren Ross, president, and Robert Ensley, secretary-treasurer.

Postal History To Form Indiana Program

The Central Indiana Collectors Club of Noblesville has scheduled its next meeting for Tuesday, April 18, in the Firestone Cafeteria in Noblesville. On the program will be an auction and trading session, and a speaker, E. J. Morgan of Indianapolis, who will discuss the postal history of Hamilton County prior to 1875.

SEITZ COIN CASES

of Transparent PLASTIC

Plastic pins are moulded in the bottom plate, coins fit tight and never revolve, are never upside down nor sideways in the holder. Air flows around the coins, moisture is not trapped, is permitted to escape, thus keeping your uncirculated coins forever brilliant. Cases are available for proof sets; mint sets and series sets.

Date Empire Club To Meet April 15

Saturday, April 15, has been set for the next meeting of the Date Empire Coin Club of Indio, Calif., scheduled for the Security Bank club room in Indio, starting at 7:30 p.m., according to a report from club secretary Donna M. Laubsch.

At the last meeting, discussion centered around altered date cents, with emphasis on the 1944-D changed to resemble the 1914-D. Also, the club endorsed Earl Whitehead's candidacy for the American Numismatic Association board of governors.

Couple Named Coin Week Heads

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Lewis have been appointed by the Neosho Valley Coin Club of Chanute, Kansas, as co-chairmen of the club's participation in National Coin Week.

The club plans exhibits in the lobby of the Bank of Commerce in Chanute.

Galleries Sale Date Ends April 20

Coin Galleries of New York has issued its first Mail Bid Sale catalogue of the current season, with the closing date scheduled for Thursday, April 20.

The Sale covers a wider range than most, varying from ancient gold to modern European, American and Canadian.

Outstanding, according to the Galleries, is a consignment of Latin American Dollars and Proclamation Medals, which should be of interest to the specialist of South of the Border numismatics.

There is also a consignment of multiple Talers and Siege coins, mostly in very nice condition, as well as coins from Sweden, Africa, and the Far East.

A copy of the sales catalogue may be secured by writing Coin Galleries, 123 West 57th Street, New York, 19, N. Y.

Liberal Show

To Be May 6-7

May 6 and 7 have been set for the spring Coin Show and Auction sponsored by the Liberal, Kansas, Coin Club, in the local National Guard Armory. Chairman is Harry Massey, Box 256, Liberal.

Next meeting of the Liberal club is scheduled for Thursday, April 20, in the Courthouse lounge, starting at 8 p.m. Visitors are welcome.

First Inscribed Coin

Earliest known inscribed coin, now in the British Museum, is the unique electrum stater, associated with Halicarnassus.

E-Z Seal coin holders are supplied in strips of five for ease of typing and handling. Each strip of five has one 50c size opening and four 25c size openings. These accommodate all coins, foreign and American, up to 50c size. The holder is made of high grade plywood. Each holder has two die cut openings and two crystal clear plastic windows that fold together making a fully enclosed visible pocket for your coin.

EASY TO USE

To mount your coin, place the crystal clear protective film windows over hole openings on pressure sensitized side of mount. Place coin over opening and fold. Apply pressure to seal! Both sides of coin will be completely protected, yet clearly visible at all times for inspection.

hope other subscribers will give their friends subscriptions..... because it is a wonderful paper for people who are interested in the numismatic field.

David Scrivens
Rowe, Mass.

I am and have been a subscriber to your paper since its origin. I have delighted at the good judgment and integrity of your leadership in the numismatic field.

At this point, however, I am of the opinion that one important aspect of coin collecting is being downgraded and that is in the area of varieties. I am in accord with certain statements put forth by writers in your paper and that is, there are slight deviations in every year's mintage and so there can be no definite variety. This is in my opinion not realistic when it comes to the small-date 1960's.

A true variety depends upon whether or not a die really has been changed. It has been officially stated by the Philadelphia Mint that it was definitely changed because of clogging in the 6 and the 0. This is a statement of fact and should be accepted as such.

Those people who advertise small - motto dimes, small - date nickels, and medium-date cents are doing this without foundation in fact and should be exposed.

I believe that it is up to people like yourselves in positions of numismatic responsibility to enlighten the public on what the true facts are.

When this is done the numismatic fraternity will have the confidence in evaluating what is true and what is untrue. This will greatly aid in keeping the numismatic public from being fooled.

The difference between the small-date and large-date cent of 1960 is quite obvious. This can be seen readily with the naked eye.

I trust that this letter will be placed in your "Letters to the Editor" section of your paper. This will show to your many followers that your paper has the courage to print the facts.

Albert Landes
Philadelphia, Pa.

I'm just thrilled with my subscription to Coin World. I just can't find words or room to express my feelings about the paper. I had to laugh..... another man wrote you..... about staying up until 2 a.m. reading Coin World... I stayed up, too, reading every word. Now a new horizon has actually been opened to us.....

William G. Watt
Cedar Lake, Ind.

Well, another year has about rolled around. I am a charter subscriber and it is about time to pay my year's rent! I like very much the way your paper covers so many angles in coin collecting.

Jesse Schlegel
Wamego, Kansas

Enclosed is a check for another 13-week classified for Canadian large cents; the token classified has and still is bringing in orders. Coin World is four to one on the same ad in other publications. It has been said build a better mouse trap and they will beat a path to your door.....

G. C. Nudd
Penacook, N. H.

To my many friends and dealers alike.... let's take advantage of the bonus offer from one of the greatest and finest papers of any description in the field of numismatics (magazines included.) If we all work together, we can reach and even surpass the 50,000 subscriber quota before the anniversary date of this wonderful paper which covers not only coins of our modern era but everything from old Roman coins to our present day "jumping D's" and more.

I. Wanderlich
Buffalo, N. Y.

Here is a tip for the newer collectors who have occasion to send one or two coins through the mail in envelopes.

Marking the envelope "please hand stamp" does not always suffice as when piles of mail are stacked for the cancelling machine the mark may not be noticed.

If the coin(s) in the envelope happen to be directly under the die when the piece of mail goes through the cancelling machine, occasionally the coin is shot out of the envelope and across the post office room like a piece of shrapnel and can become lost.

Best procedure is to arrange the coin(s) within the envelope so it comes in the lower lefthand corner and then staple it in position by stapling directly through envelope letter, coin envelope or card.

Record-Breaking Attendance For Appalachian Clubs Conclave

Attendance at the Appalachian Confederation of Coin Clubs convention, held March 25, in Newton, N. C., was believed to be the largest ever recorded at a North Carolina coin convention, officials of the semi-annual conclave said today.

More than 1,200 persons attended the one-day session with nine states represented. There were 44 tables for dealers from Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee, West Virginia, Virginia and North Carolina.

The session was held in the American Legion Building in Newton under the joint sponsorship of the Appalachian Confederation and the host club, the Piedmont Numismatic Society of Newton. J. V. Stewart and Dr. J. D. Cochran Jr. were co-chairmen.

Elaborate collections of coin and currency mint errors and a nationally famous collection of large old U. S. currency won top honors for Dr. C. A. Bolt, Marshville, N. C., member of the host club, in the currency classification.

J. W. Abernethy Jr., Newton, N. C., also a member of the host club, was presented with first award in the gold display competition. Each one of the winners was presented with an engraved plaque.

The gold collection on display

Exhibit winners at the Appalachian Confederation of Coin Clubs convention are, left to right, Dr. C. A. Bolt, Marshville, N. C., first for mint errors in coins and currency; Paul M. Whisonant, Lincoln, N.C., first award for large old U.S. currency display; J. W. Abernethy Jr., Newton, N. C., first award for gold coin display.

included a complete set of $20 gold including A. C. Paquet type, two boards of $50 gold slugs, a portion of one of the largest accumulations of gold Spanish doubloons in the United States; Templeton Reid $5 gold coin, a Confederate gold cent restrike, complete sets of Charlotte, Bechtler and Dahlonega gold.

There was a type set of Confederate currency. Aubrey Garber, Grundy, Va., president of the A.C.C.C., displayed a type set of U.S. minor and gold coins.

Through the courtesy of Abe Kosoff, internationally known professional numismatist, the Appalachian display was enhanced by his unique Hawaiian quarter and half dollar pieces struck in platinum. These were extremely popular among the viewers because they are the only known specimens and are valued in excess of $15,000.

Over 125 persons attended the evening auction. Many choice gold and key coins were sold by J. McNeely Miller, Salisbury, N. C., one of the state's most popular and honored coin auctioneers.

Aubrey Garber presided at the business session where preliminary plans were made for the fall convention which will be held in Knoxville, Tenn., in September. Miss Betty Jo Lambert, Bluefield, West Va., served as secretary.

Special awards were made throughout the day; there was free admission to everyone and free bourse tables to dealers by prior reservation.

"Dealers, collectors and visitors were most complimentary to Co-Chairmen Stewart and Dr. Cochran and the host club president, Arnold Barwick, in their praises for the planning and conducting of the convention," according to Appalachian officials.

Raritan Bay Club To Meet

Free membership for juniors is a feature of the Raritan Bay Coin and Stamp Club of Perth Amboy, N. J., which is inviting any interested collectors of the area to attend the next meeting, set for Tuesday, April 18, at the Neal Lucey Center, William Street, Perth Amboy, starting at 8 p.m.

The club recently installed its 1961 officers at the annual business meeting, held at the Center. They included:

Guy Mallett, president; Henry Bang, vice president; Michael A. Maldony, secretary; Frank Masopust, treasurer and coin auctioneer; Edward Lis, librarian; George Kopko, sergeant at arms, and Walter Tokarski, philatelic auctioneer.

Heavy Money Coined

Iron coins were used in regions around the Euxine Sea, and in China and Byzantium.

THANKS TO ALL!

I want to thank you all for the tremendous action I received on my last two ads in Coin World. As you can see, I raised most of my buying prices in this ad because I don't want to be piggy and make all the money. My policy: take some and leave some (for you).

Enclosed find my renewal for two years. Even though it is not quite due, we want to see those 50,000 subscriptions marked up on the board. The bonus goes to a fellow member of H.A.N.A.

First we read Hans Schulman's column, then Jim Kelly's coin grading lists. Mr. Schulman, having close contacts with the truly great numismatists here and abroad, gives us an understanding of foreign methods of sales and auctions. Most of us know very little about this.

ness of most numismatic periodicals, you have given a delightful slant to our hobby.

Mrs. Martin McFall
Kansas City, Mo.

May your circulation always keep on the upward trend with a goal of 100,000 paid by 1962!

Albert Ostler
Butte, Mont.

Enclosed you'll find my check for $5 for another two years even though I still have almost a half year left. I hope that this will bring you closer to your goal of 50,000.

I would also like to enclose my praise to J. G. Johnson for his fine column, which is the first thing I look at. Since you expanded your page 8 and 9 I think it's better than ever. I've seen other coin papers but they don't even come close to yours for all around facts, figures and up-to-the-minute news. I know you can't print every letter you get (that would probably take up your whole paper) but I made a bet with the wife that we'll see this in print.

Thanks again for a swell paper and for the chance for me to have a friend enjoy it also through your bonus subscription plan.

George A. Fiala
Chicago, Ill.

I am a recent subscriber to Coin World and I would like to say your article on Page 32 of the March 16 issue, "Fair to Very Fine" by James Johnson was terrific.

Robert Bieluczyk
Meriden, Conn.

..... I have delayed writing you recently because the results of my advertising with you has kept me so busy I could not find the time. Another ad is enclosed. We think this paper is tops in the field. We especially like Mr. Kelly's trends and comments. We note occasionally a criticism or two. Don't let it worry you. Keep up the good work.....

D. J. Parker
Lee Hall, Va.

Being new to the field of numismatics, my nephew, Elton Wright and myself, have found the Coin World of tremendous aid in eliminating the mistakes we both made in the first month. We are now both subscribers of Coin World, and have made two purchases through your ads. Thanks for a good publication at reasonable price.

CENTENNIAL

Alabama Currency Higher Than Competitor, Richmond

Montgomery, Ala., claims unequivocal superiority over Richmond in the current market value of Confederate bills.

Despite its heritage as first capital of the Confederacy, Montgomery has been relegated behind successor Richmond in historical accounts of the War for Southern Independence.

However, present collectors' prices for Confederate money show the Alabama capital with its first clear-cut claim to superiority.

Value of notes issued by the Confederate Treasury here in 1861 range from $200 for the $50 variety to $750 for the $500 type.

In contrast, the closest Richmond comes to the top Montgomery note is $350 for a $5 bill and $110 for a $50 bill.

These prices refer to notes never cancelled by Confederate authorities. Cancelled bills or those in poor condition are worth considerably less.

This information was derived from a small booklet, "Confederate States Paper Money," by Arlie R. Slabaugh.

Difference in value of notes circulated from the two former Confederate capitals results largely from the small number dated in Montgomery.

An estimated 4,426 bills, in denominations of $50, $500, $100 and $1,000, were issued from here as compared with well over a million from the Virginia capital.

The Montgomery notes were mostly circulated in May and June, 1861, bearing the signatures of Alexander B. Clitherall as register and E. C. Elmore as treasurer of the Confederacy.

Black and green in color, they are regarded as very rare on the collectors' market since only four varieties were released.

Here is a breakdown on descriptions and prices of notes issued here:

The $50 bill, showing three Negroes in a cotton field, is valued at $50 in good condition and $200 if uncanceled.

Displaying a train at a railroad station with Columbia on the left, the $100 note is priced at $50 good to $225 uncanceled.

The $500 bill pictures cattle being driven down a lane as a train crosses a bridge. It is worth $150 good to $750 uncanceled.

Valued at $125 good to $650 uncanceled, the $1,000 note has John C. Calhoun on the left and Andrew Jackson on the right.

Most of the notes issued from Montgomery and Richmond read that they will be redeemed six months or two years "after the ratification of a treaty of peace between the Confederate States and the United States of America."

Since a peace treaty seems out of the question, it is well that such high prices are being offered for the bills.

Bank Commemorates War

A rare collection of Confederate currency containing more than 3,000 bills, issued by both the Confederate Congress and the individual Confederate states, is shown in the main lobby of the Union Planters National Bank of Memphis, Tenn., in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the War Between the States. Lithographs of the major battles of the Civil War and authentic weapons share the exhibit with the currency.

Charleston Coins Expire

Wednesday, April 12, centennial anniversary of the battle of Fort Sumter, was the last day that Confederate commemorative half dollars of Charleston, S. C., were to be legal tender in that city.

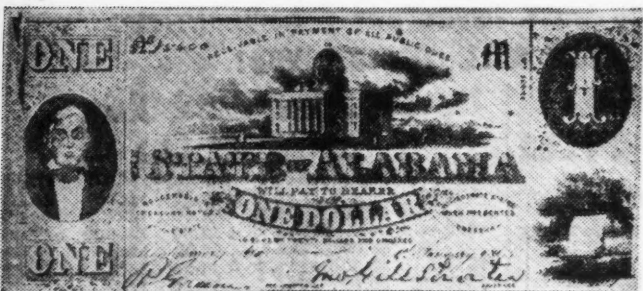

The coins were issued by the Charleston Confederate Centennial Commission in late March, and were to be good for 50 cents in trade at any participating place of business or could be redeemed at any bank, through April 12.

One side of the coin was to be a duplicate of the original Confederate half dollar, the other was to bear the device of the Centennial Commission and the statement of value.

Teacher Part-Time Coin Dealer

John E. Tidwell, a 46-year-old teacher of science and mathematics in the Nashville City Schools, Tenn., has been a part-time coin dealer for 15 years. His specialty for the past five years has been Confederate money, bonds, documents, and other related items.

Tidwell believes in the old slogan "save your Confederate money". He admits to having a safety deposit box full of it. He has two sons of college age and plans to sell enough Confederate money during the 1961-64 anniversary celebration to help pay their tuition.

His wife, also a school teacher, is an unreconstructed rebel who can whistle "Dixie" at the drop of a hat. They enjoy visiting sites of historical interest and while his wife digs for minie balls, Mr. Tidwell dickers for Confederate money.

John E. Tidwell

Tidwell is a member of the Tennessee Historical Society and the Confederate Historical Society.

For the past 22 years Mr. Tidwell has been an active member of the American Numismatic Association, and has served as secretary and president of the Nashville Coin Club.

Coins Of Canada To Be Club Program

Dennis E. Olswang of San Francisco is scheduled to speak on the "Coins of Canada", at the next meeting on Wednesday, April 19, of the recently organized Napa Valley, Calif., Coin Club, set for the Davis School all-purpose quonset hut, on Pueblo Avenue, just west of the Napa Junior College stadium, starting at 8 p.m.

At the close of the March session, the club's third, 86 charter members had joined the roster. More members are invited, especially from the St. Helena and Calistoga areas, according to club officials.

Hobart, Indiana, To Have New Shop

The first store for coin collectors in Hobart, Indiana, has been opened by Mrs. Kris Tracy at 1801 West Ridge Road, under the name of the West Hobart Coin and Hobby Shop. Supplies as well as coins will be carried.

Old Fort Seal To Be Selected

At the April 13 meeting of the Old Fort Coin Club of Fort Wayne, Ind., members are scheduled to vote on the best designs submitted for a club emblem or seal. The three best will receive awards, and the winner will be featured on club stationery, membership cards, and the like.

At the last session, a trading table was featured, with no other activity allowed at that special table. Also at the March meeting, an entertainment program was inaugurated, with the first one comprising a game called "Scrambled".

The Old Fort club is celebrating its fifth year of activity in 1961, with its membership nearing the 200 mark. Meetings are held in the Freuhauf Union Hall, 2410 Central Drive, in Fort Wayne, starting at 7:30 p.m.

ATTENTION DEALERS!

If you are a legitimate dealer, either in coins, or coin supplies, or both, or a part-time dealer of good character and reputation, and you are a member of the A.N.A., or some coin fraternity, and you wish to promote the better interest in Numismatics, then you should be a member of the RETAIL COIN DEALERS ASSOCIATION, INC., known as the "RCDA".

Membership is $10.00 for the first year, and you may write the details in your letter for membership, or write for an application.

IRISH AND MEXICAN DIED TOGETHER

Till the end they were brave,
they sought victory;
they would yet sing with loud voices . . .
They are of a noble race; they were born of a great lord.

(anonymous Irish poem of the XI century).

During the war between Mexico and the United States in 1847-1848, in which Mexico lost more than one-half its territory (Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, and California), a group of valorous Irishmen formed St. Patrick's Battalion and took arms for Mexico, under the command of Capt. John O'Reilly. Their green flag with St. Patrick's cross waved in many battles against the invading armies. Many died on the battlefields, and in the Mexico City suburbs of San Angel and Tacubaya 70 captured Irish soldiers were executed by General Winfield Scott.

In order to pay its debt of gratitude to its valiant and generous allies from Eirie, Mexico organizes a solemn ceremony each year on the anniversary of their death. Their names are venerated and the school children answer in chorus: "He died for Mexico" when each name is pronounced during the roll call.

The brave men who were sacrificed in Mexico City were:

Commemorative medals in gold and in silver were coined in 1960 from a sculpture by the famous Lorenzo Rafael, considered the best sculptor in Latin America. A combination of the Mexican eagle and the Irish cross appear on the front; an Irish soldier during the defense of the convent of Churubusco on the back.

The gold medals have the following characteristics:
Diameter: 0.37 centimeters.
Gold content: 0.900 thousands.
Weight: 41.66 grams.

The silver medals have the following characteristics:
Diameter: 0.37 centimeters.
Silver content: 0.999 thousands.
Weight: 24 grams.

The Mexican government does not permit the commercial export of gold so these medals can only be sold to people actually in Mexico at $68.00 U.S. currency.

The silver medals can be ordered by mail. Their price, including air mail, is $3.50 U.S. currency. A check should be included with each order.

A narrative pamphlet about the heroic St. Patrick's Battalion will be mailed together with each medal.

Installation Highlight For San Gabriel Banquet

With M. H. Bolender acting as master of ceremonies, the San Gabriel Valley Coin Club of Pasadena, Calif., held its 10th annual banquet recently, featuring the installation of its 1961 officers. The affair was held at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel.

Miss Alva Christensen was installed as president, succeeding herself, and was presented by Bolender with an inscribed block to accompany her gavel of office. Other 1961 officers include:

August Harder, vice presi-

George Hatie Wins Pontiac Best-In-Show

George Hatie of Grosse Pointe Park, Mich., received the first award for his exhibit of Ancient Coins, the only entry in the class, at the recent Coin Show sponsored by the Pontiac, Mich., Coin Club, and with his award also went the special trophy for best in show, according to a report from club officials.

Well over 1,000 visitors attended the show, which featured 23 bourse tables and the exhibits.

Hatie took a third win, getting a first award in the Miscellaneous classification. However, he was outdone in quantity by Arthur Webster, Pontiac, who received two firsts and two seconds, in Medals and Decorations, Odd and Curious, Foreign Coins, and Miscellaneous, respectively. Other multiple winners were:

Clarence Cue, Pontiac, second in U. S. Paper Money, and thirds in U. S. Silver and U. S. Copper; John Drzen, St. Clair Shores, Mich., firsts in both U. S. Silver and U. S. Copper; Harold Chaney, Flint, Mich., firsts in Foreign Paper and in Foreign Coins; and Irving Moskovitz, Detroit, first in Gold, and second in Medals and Decorations. Winners of single awards included:

John Rogers, St. Clair Shores, second in U. S. Copper; Frances Temming, Holly, Mich., second, U. S. Silver; Ralph Langley, Oxford, Mich., third, Foreign Coins; Stuart Goodstein, Southfield, Mich., first, U. S. Paper; Hilda Hansard, Holly, third, U. S. Paper; Arthur Smith, Pontiac, third, Miscellaneous, and John Finger, Royal Oak, Mich., first Junior award.

Oklahomans Plan Show

When the first annual Coin Show and Auction sponsored by the Seminole, Okla., Coin Club opens its doors at 9 a.m., Saturday, April 15, in the Seminole Municipal Auditorium, it will introduce 24 hours of coin buying, selling and trading to collector and non-collector alike of central Oklahoma.

Bourse tables will be occupied by 30 dealers, and the auction will take place on Sunday afternoon, beginning at 2 p.m.

The Seminole club has distributed circulars in the area inviting the general public to visit the Show, with the auction as an attraction as well as the chance to sell any odd coins or have them appraised.

The Show will be open for 12 hours on each of the two days, running from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on both Saturday and Sunday. No admission is charged. A part of the exhibit space will be given over to gun collectors and dealers, so that a double interest may be involved.

General chairman is Joe West, Box 816, Seminole, Okla.

Kenosha Banquet Set For April 22

The third annual banquet and auction of the Kenosha, Wisc., Coin Club, set for Saturday, April 22, at 6:30 p.m., will be held at the Maplecrest Country Club on highway 192 west of the city.

Special awards will be given out during the auction. Tickets for the banquet may be obtained from John Warren, 5040 Sixth Avenue, Kenosha.

Election Part Of Anniversary

The Farmington, Iowa, Coin Club has scheduled its annual election of officers to coincide with its second birthday anniversary, at the next meeting on Thursday, April 13, to be held at the Skyline Cafe south of Farmington, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Founded in April, 1959, the club has grown to a membership of more than 90, with 42 members and 10 guests present at the last meeting. Of the guests, seven became new members at that session.

Civil War Proving Grounds For New Concept Of U.S. Navy

By Nathan N. Eglit

Although the Civil War was largely a land war, naval warfare had a great bearing on the final results. A new concept in naval warfare was the development of the armored warship, the ironclad.

The ironclads on the Mississippi helped Grant take Vicksburg and cut the Confederacy in half. But (renamed the Virginia by the Southern Naval Command) was the ironclad that romanticized and publicized this feature of the war was the Monitor.

Its battle with the Merrimack really a standoff, and had no real military significance for either side. John Ericsson, the designer and builder, thought she would be effective against shore installations, and in his correspondence to the Navy Department stated that:

"The impregnable and aggressive character of this structure will admonish the leaders of the Southern Rebellion that the batteries on their banks of their rivers will no longer present barriers to the entrance of Union forces. The ironclad intruder will thus prove a severe monitor to those leaders."

By accident the Monitor met the Virginia (Merrimack) in Hampton Roads on March 9, 1862, and they bombarded each other. This battle electrified the North as a highly publicized victory. The South, also, acclaimed it as a victory for the Virginia. Quite a number of tokens were issued to celebrate this affair. A few of them are shown here, or described.

Scene of the two ironclads locked in battle. Inscription around edge: "The First Battle Between Ironclad War Vessels." Reverse, the inscription: The Rebel Steamer Merrimack, with 12 guns defeated by the Union Steamer Monitor with 2 guns in Hampton Rds., March 9, 1862. (Copper, 30 mm.) (Fuld)

Another contemporary piece is the Civil War cent with the obverse showing the Monitor and the inscription: "Our Little Monitor".

Contemporary mulings on political tokens show the Monitor and the date 1862 on the reverse. This reverse appears on political tokens that were issued in the 1864 election for Lincoln (DeWitt 1864-23), and McClellan (DeWitt Mc 1864-24). This reverse also appears on the token issued for Major Gen. John Pope. Several commemorative pieces were issued in 1889 on the death of John Ericsson showing Ericsson on obverse and the Monitor on reverse.

The rallying point of the North was, of course, Abraham Lincoln, as head of the nation. Although he was castigated by a vocal anti-administration press, as well as by Southern newspapers, he nevertheless had popular opinion behind him. About 200 contemporary political tokens, badges, ferrotypes and other metallic pieces were issued by private engravers and die sinkers.

There were over 30 different varieties of Civil War cents issued with Lincoln's effigy appearing as the main design. The mint issued the official Indian Peace Medal in 1862, and in 1864 the semi-official Sanitary Fair medal previously referred to. After his assassination there issued a number of mortuary medals.

In the latest listing of Lincolniana in The Numismatist in December, 1959, the total issues to that date numbered 1210 pieces. Lincoln medals and tokens are a study all by themselves.

Ulysses S. Grant emerged, next to Lincoln, as the second great figure of the War, and contemporary and commemorative pieces issued in later years probably amount to several hundred pieces.

The medal issued to Grant, by resolution of Congress, for his victory at Vicksburg was the last one so awarded to a military hero.

Grant is featured on the 32nd National Encampment of the G.A.R. September 10, 1893, in Cincinnati.

Since then standard awards, in the form of decorations have been the customary form of recognition to our military heroes. There are 100 political tokens, medals, badges and ferrotypes issued for Grant in connection with his candidacy for president in the election of 1868, and 26 pieces issued during the election of 1872.

One such piece was issued during the election of 1864 when he was proposed as a candidate by the Missouri delegation to the Union Convention. There are a few

The Romance of MONEY

By Ted H. Hammer

A man who began collecting coins while serving overseas in World War I was highly elated when he phoned us the other Sunday.

He had been searching "all my life" for a silver dollar of 1895 from the Philadelphia Mint, the year of his birth. While there should be some 12,000 of these coins around only ones found are proofs, which are catalogued today at $700.

Ted R. Hammer

This collector had written every major dealer in the country at least once, trying to find a silver dollar of 1895. At first, he wanted to "pick one up" at $2 or $3 but finally said he'd be willing to go as high as $20.

A stranger visited his office the other day, explaining that he had a side line as a vest pocket dealer in coins. They're known to the trade as VPs and comprise the largest single group of numismatists. This VP was travelling auditor for a food speciality concern, he said.

His brief case was loaded with goodies. He had some scarce $3 gold pieces, scarce Lincoln cents, the old blanket size notes—and an 1895 dollar. The dollar was what collectors classify as very good—not a truly desirable specimen.

Our friend drooled when he saw the dollar, but, being a poker player, he restrained himself. He picked up several coins and examined them before letting his sweating fingers caress the dollar. "What do you have to get for this coin?" our friend asked.

"I've got 25 bucks in it and certainly can't let it go for less. I'd be willing to let you have it for that if you take several other items so that I can make a buck or so."

Only other item our friend wanted was a $2 note of the 1917 Series, priced at $4.75. Finally the visitor parted with the note and the dollar for $25.

Naturally we were glad our fellow collector finally had picked up the coin he'd wanted all those years. He could not wait to show it, so he drove over.

The coin classed as very good—it was almost fine in fact. We looked at the sharpness of the head and date then turned over the coin. A Philadelphia mint dollar bears no mintmark, while those of New Orleans or San Francisco bear a letter O or S under the wreath on the tails side.

Visible with the naked eye was a "blob" where someone had been busy with a tool. He obviously had removed a mintmark—probably an O, for the New Orleans mint. The 1895 dollar our friend wanted was that of the Philadelphia Mint—not one from New Orleans or San Francisco.

So the visiting VP had accommodated the collector. On his way home, our friend drove across the Arkansas River. Without getting out of his auto, he gave the phony 1895 dollar a toss into the river. The rest of his collection has been put in the hands of a dealer who will sell it by mail auction early next summer.

Atchison To Have Club

Thursday, April 13, has been set for the second meeting of the newly organized Atchison, Kansas, Coin Club, to be held at Atchison's Memorial Hall in the recreation office, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Assisting at the organization session in March was D. P. Lyon, who had been instrumental in founding the Midland Empire Numismatic Association of St. Joseph, Mo., and five other members of the St. Joseph club.

At the March meeting, John Gerardy was chosen president; Walter Feddersen, vice president; Hilda L. Freibott, secretary, and Harry Allen, treasurer.

Any interested collectors are invited to attend Thursday's session.

COIN WORLD CELEBRATES THE CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL WITH A COMMEMORATIVE MEDAL

Available Only To Coin World Subscribers!

(Non-subscribers, see new subscription form in this issue.)

Available Only From Coin World!

(One of a series)

The firing on Fort Sumter one hundred years ago marked the beginning of the War between the States. As we begin the five year centennial of this historic event, Coin World joins in commemorating this event by preserving in metal the heads of state for both the North and the South: Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis.

Bronze medals have been struck bearing the portraits of these two leaders. Above the three-quarter view of Lincoln and Davis appear the words: 1861 - CENTENNIAL - 1961, below, the words: WAR BETWEEN THE STATES.

On the reverse of this medal is a symbol familiar to 50,000 collectors — the revolving globe of the world, Coin

World's trademark! An entire series of these commemorative medals is planned, maintaining the continuity of this reverse. Each year, a prominent event or person will be placed on the obverse portraying a part in a series of American numismatic events.

You will certainly want to get the first one in this series of Coin World medals. These half-dollar-sized medals will form a companion piece to your commemorative half dollars, so-called half dollars, and other half dollar size medallion series.

Nebraska Convention April 15-16

Officers and members of the Lincoln, Nebr., Coin Club are official hosts for the sixth annual convention of the Nebraska Numismatic Association, to be held April 15-16 at the Hotel Capitol in Lincoln.

James J. Cotton, Lincoln, is president of the N.N.A.; Carl Hansen, Fremont, first vice president; Melvin D. Stark, Omaha, second vice president, and Elmer G. Nelson, Grand Island, secretary-treasurer.

The program will include open dealers' bourse with tables at $20. Auction sessions will be conducted by Dan Pierce; a banquet, displays and awards and ladies' activities will be part of the conclave along with the business session.

Persons from six neighboring states are expected to join the Nebraska collectors.

Elmer G. Nelson, Box 694, Grand Island, Nebr., is secretary of the convention; information can also be obtained from James L. McKee, 216 S. Cotner Blvd., Lincoln, 10, Nebr.

Coinerama Date Set For April 22

The Cheyenne, Wyo., Coin Club has scheduled a "Coinerama" for Saturday, April 22, in the Elks Club basement, from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. Included on the program will be dealers' bourse tables and a 200-lot auction conducted by Joe Pollare. Exhibits are also slated. Tom Mason is general chairman.

Southern Hub Has Project Series

"Education for '61" is a project for Southern Hub Coin Club of Inglewood, Calif., with National Coin Week observance a part of the program. Joy Parrish, Lawndale, secretary of the club, announces.

The club which has a membership of 267 has outgrown its former home in Lennox and has moved to a new location at 325 North Hillcrest Bldg., near Hillcrest and Florence avenue.

President Robert Miller and Co-Chairmen John R. Parrish, of Lawndale, and Mrs. Pauline Ney, of Santa Monica, are in charge of National Coin Week plans.

Many exhibits have been planned, and posters have been distributed to the newspaper offices, and the Chamber of Commerce offices. Many of the advanced collectors in the Southern Hub Club are scheduled to speak during the week of celebrations, and to show their collections.

Aside from its regular meetings the second Sunday of each month, the club has taken an active interest in community affairs, and recently donated $25 to the Community Chest drive in the South Bay Area of Los Angeles County.

Several exhibits are being planned for the summer hobby shows sponsored by the County Department of Parks and Recreation.

The anniversary celebration in July is underway, and four members have already made reservations for exhibit space. The annual event is scheduled for July 9 this year.

Effective with the April 9 session, the Southern Hub Coin Club of Inglewood, Calif., has changed its meeting place. It will now convene at the Inglewood Women's Club, 325 North Hillcrest Boulevard in Inglewood, according to a report from Pauline Ney, acting secretary during the illness of secretary Joy Parrish. The meeting was set to start at 2 p.m.

The club formerly met at the Lennox Women's Club house on Lennox Boulevard.

Also announced were plans for National Coin Week observance by the club. Mrs. Pauline Ney is general committee chairman, and she will be assisted by vice president John Parrish.

Included will be many displays and lectures by well known coin collectors.

Scheduled for the April 9 meeting was a "Grand Opening" to celebrate the growth of the club, which was the reason for the change in location. In addition, it was expected that the club's National Coin Week plans, coupled with the annual anniversary show in July, would draw too large a crowd for the former place. The membership has passed the 350 mark.

A feature of the March meeting was the offering for auction of a 1942 over '41 dime, found in circulation by Ralph Miller. Since he did not need it for his own collection, he put it up for sale and it went for $49.

Detector Finds Medal

Using a metal detector, John Mills recently found an old religious medal on the grounds of the Soledad, Calif., Mission. It was placed in the display case in the Mission chapel.

Coin Week Plans Set In Valley

At least 25 coin exhibits will be placed throughout the Arkansas Valley in store windows and banks during National Coin Week April 23-30, according to Herman Boraker, Arkansas Valley, Colo., Coin Club president.

Plans to display numismatic material from Pueblo to Lamar, Colo., were completed at the March meeting of the Arkansas Valley club where Boraker, the president, officiated.

Edgar Ford, of Las Animas, chairman of the club's National Coin Week committee, reported on auction and plans of the committee.

Damon Weeks of Eads was in charge of the program for the evening. He read excerpts from different government publications dealing with the printing and coinage of American money. Weeks also passed out copies of the different government publications to those present.

Allen R. Smith of Rocky Ford received first place for his exhibit of German porcelain coins and medals. Tom Nidey of Lamar placed second; Damon Weeks, third, and Howard Heise of Lamar, fourth. An exhibit of fractional currency and foreign silver dollars by Herman Boraker was not included in the judging.

Mr. and Mrs. Damon Weeks of Eads were host and hostess for the evening. An auction sale concluded the evenings entertainment.

The April 11 meeting was scheduled to be held in Pueblo, Colo. Large window signs to be distributed to those planning National Coin Week displays and other final plans for participation in Coin Week activities were to be formulated at this meeting.

Lenoir Club May Be Reactivated

Coin collectors in the Lenoir, N.C., area who would be interested in reactivating the Lenoir Numismatic Club, are invited to get in touch with the last elected president of the club, Ira M. Schey Jr., who may be reached through the Lenoir Hosiery Mills, Inc. The organization has been inactive for the past year, since president Schey was confined to a hospital for three months a year ago.

Canadian Collectors Plan Anniversary, Installation

The second anniversary meeting of the Canadian Collectors Club of Boston, Mass., has been scheduled for Monday, April 17, at the Sheraton Plaza Hotel, at which time an award will be made and 1961 officers installed.

Member Clarence F. Fink, author of "Pieces of Fate" and "History of World Coins," has donated one of his books to be presented to the member who has done the most to build the club to its present status.

Officers to be installed include: Maurice M. Gould, president; Earl V. Tuttle, vice president; Andrew S. Scott, secretary-treasurer; and to the board of governors, Melvin E. Came, Grace D. Lincoln, Earl Bellis, Leonard H. Finn, Milton Feinstein and Frank D. Washburn.

The program at the last meeting featured a paper from Major Sheldon S. Carroll, past president of the Canadian Numismatic Association, on "The Future of Canadian Numismatics".

Joseph W. Brown, secretary of the Framingham, Mass., Coin Club, gave an illustrated talk on "Greek and Roman Coinage". Accepted for membership were 12 applicants.

Pirate Money... Collector's Items

PIECES OF EIGHT

and Pirate "COB" Money

There is probably no more romantic coin in history than the original "piece of eight". It was the standard unit of money among the bold explorers who settled and conquered the American continent and our present "dollar" is a direct descendant of the Spanish milled dollar, valued at 8 reales and also known as the "pillar dollar" or "piece of eight".

The term "two bits", etc., came from the practice of splitting the coin into pieces to make change in a money scarce economy. The resolution of June 22, 1775, authorized the first issue of Continental paper money, and provided that the notes should be payable in Spanish milled dollars, or the value thereof in gold or silver. Genuine Pillar dollars are scarce and high in price, particularly if they are in mint condition.

Some time ago a coiner in South America made a limited number of reproductions of this romantic old coin. These reproductions are extraordinarily authentic and contain the same silver content as the originals, which they duplicate in every way. Even some experts cannot tell the difference.

We purchased the stock of what is now a collector's item in itself. They are $5.05 each, and as the years pass they will be worth much more. Wonderful conversation pieces or decorative items and a must for coin collectors in this field. There will be no more available after this stock is exhausted.

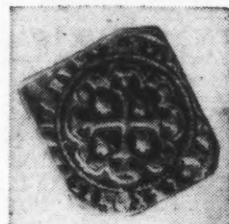

Circular milled coin, mint condition, or "cobs", $5.05 each, postpaid no C.O.D. Order by number as indicated by photographs on left. These are approximately actual size.

Californian Wheels, Deals In Both Coins And Tires

Tires and coins! Can they mix? Hy Spitz, Montebello, Los Angeles, Calif., thinks so because he's doing it. This enterprising fellow sells tires, then wheels around and deals in coins in the same establishment without batting an eye. A Goodyear tire distributor for East Los Angeles and Montebello, Hy Spitz has been in the tire business for no less than 30 years and has been interested in numismatics even longer.

Residing at 6078 East Olympic Boulevard, he has been a resident of Montebello for the past five years and for the past 24 years Spitz has operated his tire business at the corner of LaVerne and Whittier Boulevard.

Hy Spitz feels that combining the selling coins and tires is as natural a combination as that of bacon and eggs.

Hy, who is a two-term president and one of the founders of the East Los Angeles Coin Club, first became interested in numismatics as a boy when he was told that a coin he had was worth $10. He didn't believe it until he took the coin to a collector and sold it—for $10.

Hy has been especially interested in helping novice collectors get their hobbies underway, and he always provides the juniors with catalogues and brochures on the values of U.S. and foreign coins.

When Dad comes into buy his tires and Junior accompanies him to buy a coin or catalog, Hy Spitz is really in business!

Confederate Coin Authentic?

Sgt. John DePew, assistant recruiter at the Air Force Recruiting Office, Rock Island, Ill., is seeking the value of a coin believed to be a Confederate half dollar.

An Illinois coin expert told the recruiter the coin was worth $200 because it was nicked; he told Sgt. DePew it would be worth about $5,000 if it had been in perfect condition.

Sgt. DePew and his family had been stationed in England for three years and returned to the States with a number of British coins.

They found the alleged Confederate coin in this collection; they believe it was received in change at some time or other in England because it is about the size of a British two pence piece.

Soviet Coinage Changes To Conform With Trend Of Times

Moscow Numismatist Traces Developments From Twenties

(Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of three stories emitting from the Soviet Union. Arkadi Luppel, scientific worker in the numismatists department of the Moscow State Museum of History, is the author of the series, which is being relayed to Coin World through the press department of the Embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in Washington.)

By Arkadi Luppel

In 1925-27 copper coins of one-half kopek denomination were struck. The obverse side of this coin bore the inscription "USSR" and around the circle the motto: "Workers of the World Unite!"

On the reverse side is the inscription "half-kopek" in two lines and the date below it (see Fig. II, No. 9). The diameter is 16 mm., corrugated edge, weight—1.638 grams.

Soon after the minting of small change from red copper started, its impracticability was discovered: The coins were heavy, bulky and required a big expenditure of non-ferrous metals.

Therefore new small change in 5, 3, 2 and 1 kopek denominations were struck from an alloy consisting of 950 parts of copper and 50 parts of aluminum. The device of the coins remained the same: Diameter: five kopeks—25 mm., three kopeks—22 mm., two kopeks—18.5 mm., and one kopek—15 mm. Corrugated edge (see Fig. II, Nos. 5-8).

Since 1932 nickel coins of 20, 15 and 10 kopek denominations were put into circulation. The type on the obverse side of these coins was similar to those put out earlier of the same denomination but without the inscription "USSR."

A new type was approved for the reverse side, showing a worker holding a shield. The face value of the coin was contained in the shield, enframed with the inscription "The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics" (see Fig. II, Nos. 10-12).

The diameter of the coins: 20 kopeks—21.84 mm., 15 kopeks—19.56 mm., 10 kopeks—17.27 mm. Corrugated edge.

In 1935 the types on both sides of the nickel coins and the obverse side of the copper coins were changed. All the coins bore the same type on the obverse side (with the state emblem and a curved inscription "USSR" under it.) The reverse side of the nickel coins was considerably simplified—the face value was introduced on the shield enframed by oak leaves with acorns and spikes; below was the date (see Fig. II, Nos. 1-7). The reverse side of the copper coins was not changed.

The monetary system set up in 1922-24 in the Soviet Union showed its viability and was successfully employed for developing the socialist economy and raising the people's living standards. It also passed with flying colours the severe trials and tribulations of World War Two, though at that time the purchasing power of the ruble dropped somewhat, of course.

The monetary reform carried out in the USSR in 1947 liquidated the consequences of war as far as currency circulation was concerned, helped strengthen the Soviet ruble and ensured the further growth in the people's incomes. The currency in circulation was exchanged for the new currency in a ratio of 10:1. The small metal change was not subject to replacement and continued in circulation at its face value.

Large reductions in prices on consumer goods, which had taken place thrice in the course of 1947-50 led to the still greater strengthening of the ruble. The purchasing power of the ruble rose higher than its official rate of exchange in relation to foreign currency.

In view of this the USSR Council of Ministers adopted a decision to set the gold content of the ruble at 0.222168 grams of pure gold as of March 1, 1950. At the same time the dollar was equated at four rubles instead of the previous exchange rate of 5.30 rubles.

Especially big successes in strengthening the currency in the Soviet Union were attained in recent years. In the course of six years (1955-60 inclusively) the retail trade turnover increased 1.7 times, and the reserve stocks in shops almost doubled. Thereby the backing of the Soviet ruble with goods strengthened even more. The Soviet budget knows no deficit and the balance shows a considerable edge of revenues over expenditures.

At the same time the unprecedentedly high rate in the growth of output and the increase in the trade turnover led to the situation where the results of the economic activities of the Soviet state were expressed in truly astronomical figures. If formerly, for instance, the volume of the trade turnover was expressed in tens of thousands of millions of rubles, in 1960 it already was expressed in hundreds of thousands of millions of rubles. The gross industrial product reached a value of 1,500,000 million rubles. The turnover of cash also rose to a tremendous degree.

All these examples show the rapid development of the Soviet economy. But they also testify to the fact that the existing price scale was far from always convenient for measuring the huge mass of money which characterizes the development of production and the circulation of goods in a socialist economy. It had clearly become obsolescent and no longer conformed to the level of the economic development reached by the USSR.

(To Be Concluded)

Californians To Meet

Friday, April 14, is set for the next meeting of the Oceanside-Carlsbad, Calif., Coin Club, in the Veteran's building, Carlsbad, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Guest Speaker Grading Expert

The Victoria, Texas, Numismatic Club has scheduled its next meeting for Tuesday, April 18, in the Victoria National Bank's Town Hall, starting at 8 p.m. The meeting will be followed by an auction.

At the last session, the club heard its first out-of-town speaker, Jim Denham of Port Lavaca, Texas, who spoke on coin grading, advocating the use of Brown and Dunn to lessen possible arguments between buyer and seller.

The club plans to participate in National Coin Week by having several of its members display the collections in store windows.

Chicagoan Missing Coins

Burglars took an $800 coin collection from the Chicago home of Joseph Prible, along with jewelry and cash, according to a police report.

John Richardson, owner of John's Coin Shop, Leavenworth, Kansas, reports $244 in gold and silver coins missing from his shop. Thieves smashed a window with a rock.

Burglars broke into Bud's Country Store, Monrovia, Calif., and escaped with $90 in coins, some of them part of a collection. The thieves ignored valuable merchandise.

A $200 coin collection was included in the theft of cash and checks reported from the Peerless Stage Depot, Los Gatos, Calif., to officials.

A.N.A. Head Guest Speaker

When the Astronaut's Coiners hold their annual installation of officers meeting, at the Astronaut plant at San Diego, Calif., next Wednesday, April 19, featured guest of the club is scheduled to be Rear Admiral O. H. Dodson (Ret.), president of the American Numismatic Association.

All coin collectors of San Diego County are invited to attend this session, slated to start at 7:30 p.m., and are also invited to bring their own displays and their families as well. The plant is out highway 395 from San Diego. Gate guards will provide directions to the meeting room.

Officers to be installed include Bob Earhart, president; Joe Givens, vice president; Clyde Emerson, secretary - treasurer, and Gladys Raynaud, member of the board of governors.

Coins Of Glass

Arabian glass weights are said to have been used as currency tokens.

Dollars And Crowns To Be Topic For Club

"Silver dollars and crowns of the world" will be the display theme for the April 18 meeting of the North American Numismatic Society of Downey, Calif., set for the Recreation Center of the North American plant, starting at 8 p.m.

Also on the program will be a showing of slides on "Types of Commemorative Half Dollars", provided by the American Numismatic Association, according to a club announcement.

Also announced was the endorsement by the club of Charles Johnson's candidacy for member of the American Numismatic Association board of governors in the election coming up at the Atlanta convention this summer.

At the last meeting of the North American society, Johnson was the speaker, talking on U.S. and Foreign Paper Money. Appropriate exhibits were displayed, with first prize being won by George Dhenin, and second by Lloyd Glancy. Some 75 members and 35 guests were present.

DAKOTA TERRITORY CENTENNIAL COIN

Issued by its

LAST TERRITORIAL CAPITAL CITY

Photo by
M. B. BRADY

Solid golden-bronze. One of the few souvenir coins having authentic identified illustrations on both sides.

Territorial Capitol and classically modern North Dakota Capitol on obverse.

On reverse, Gen. Custer from photo by famous Civil War photographer, M. B. Brady. Probably first time his likeness placed on coin.

Reverse side "plugs" outdoor drama "Trail West". For 1961, cities of Bismarck and Mandan promote it as their centennial drama. It features "death struggle" between Custer and Sitting Bull.

50c each postpaid. Mint-sealed in plastic envelope, 75c each or 3 for $2.00. Only cash or money order.

Reach the MOSTEST collectors for the LEASTEST cost! Use a Coin World Weekly Ad Contract!

Sharpen Your Pencil . . .

Here is a typical example of the advantages in using a low-cost WEEKLY advertising contract: Dealer John Jones runs 3 quarter-page ads within three months, each at the one-time rate. His total cost for the three ads is $132.00.

Dealer Henry Smith has used his sharp pencil and compared the contract ad rates. Result . . . he has a 52 week advertising contract! In the same three months, he has inserted 3 quarter-page ads and 13 Classified Display one-inch "rate-holder" ads — a total of 16 ads at a total cost of $133.20. Was his additional cost of $1.20 worth it? Which dealer got the most mileage from his advertising dollar?

Dealer Smith knows that, with his 52-week ad contract with a minimum of one inch "rate holder" ad appearing EVERY WEEK, he can run a quarter-page ad, a half-page ad or even a full page ad at the lowest ad rates of any coin newspaper! He also knows that he gets the added premium of the WORLD'S LARGEST PAID CIRCULATION among ready-to-buy coin collectors in the United States and Canada.

Dealer Smith has been busy every week "talking" to 50,000 collectors . . . identifying himself with a particular Classified branch of numismatics. Dealer Jones has been content to speak up only three times. Which dealer gets more business from collectors?

Any way you figure it, YOUR BEST BUY is a Coin World WEEKLY advertising contract! You get MORE SPACE to reach MORE COLLECTORS for 50 FEW DOLLARS!

MAIL BID SALES NOW USE 4 INCHES

All such ads require a minimum of four inches of space as they do not appear in the Classified Section. Mail Bid Sale ads must be confined to items offered and no fixed price items are to be included in same ad. Specify closing date, otherwise we establish 10 days from publication date.

THRIFTY CREDIT! $10.00 MINIMUM

Non-contract advertisers should send cash (check or money order) with all ads under $10.00. On orders over $10.00, you may send cash in advance or bank references. We will grant 30-day credit to any advertiser establishing credit references. Dun and Bradstreet notification is given on delinquencies.

Monitor-Merrimac Recorded

Medals struck to record the immortal battle between the Merrimac and the Monitor with Gen. John Pope, John Ericsson and Maj. Gen. George E. McClellan on the obverses.

The medal presented to Major General George G. Meade by the Union League of Philadelphia.

Eglit Series . . .

medals issued by the mint during his presidency, which are worthy of note, the Indian Peace Medal, the Let Us Have Peace and the Union Pacific. In later years his portrait appeared on a number of G. A. R. medals and badges; and after his death there were a number of mortuary medals struck.

Many phases of the nation at war may be gleaned from the large issue of Civil War cents, which were used as an emergency currency. The large issue of patriotic tokens in this series doubled as propaganda to enlist the loyalty and patriotism of the people.

The store cards, muled ad infinitum by the die sinkers, can make up a trade catalog of merchants and businesses of the great Northern cities, mainly New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Detroit, Chicago and Milwaukee, as well as a multitude of the smaller communities of the North. This phase of Civil War numismatics is too vast a subject to warrant more than passing reference here.

There are, of course, a large amount of commemorative medals and tokens referring to various phases of the Civil War. These were issued both in the Northern and Southern states in connection with the erection of statues for Grant, Sherman, Logan, Lee, Jackson and Davis, or in connection with centennials of birth of the various leaders, civil and military.

There a number of medals issued in connection with Peace Jubilees held after the war in various cities, some of which are shown here. There are pieces issued in connection with the Eternnal Light Peace Memorial established at Gettysburg on the 75th Anniversary of that battle in 1938 as well as pieces issued on the erection of Soldier's and Sailor's monuments in various cities.

The erection of Grant's Tomb; the erection of the Grant monument in Lincoln Park, Chicago, and the General Logan equestrian statue in Logan Square, Chicago, were all occasions for which commemorative tokens were issued.

Almost Everyone Prefers America's First Family of Coin Albums

THE LIBRARY OF COINS

By Any Standard, Still The Best!

Complete visibility and complete protection, the two most-wanted features of a coin album, are presented for the first time by THE LIBRARY OF COINS. Bound like books, handsome and compact, each Library of Coins volume displays and protects its coins between two sliding panels of clear, tough plastic. Each coin "porthole" has printed next to it full data on mint mark and quantity minted. Each volume contains a brief background story on the coins, giving both the novice and advanced collector helpful information, including a listing of the rare dates.

Measuring 8 1/4" x 6 1/4", the volumes are low priced, sturdily manufactured, and permanently bound in a variety of identifying colors for the various denominations. Their compact size permits the storing of a large coin collection in very small space. Backbones are clearly gold stamped so that they are as readily identifiable as are books.

The Library of Coins represents the first major innovation in high grade coin albums in more than 30 years, and was several years in development. Designed by numismatists, the Library of Coins is designed to satisfy the needs and desires of numismatists. Write for descriptive circular on the Library of Coins.

Coinage figures are given alongside each coin and all items show average prices paid by dealers. 176 pages, 5"x7 1/2" First edition. $1.75

Our albums, books and medals are available at your local coin dealer, stamp dealer, book store, hobby shop or at department store coin counters.

PAPER MONEY OF THE UNITED STATES

For the first time in history, Robert Friedberg has illustrated all types of U.S. Paper Money from 1861 to the present, from three cents to $10,000 and added collectors valuations.

A new, remarkable section, "National Bank Notes by States" illustrates and evaluates by state every National Bank Note, more than 2,200 valuations in all! Territorial Notes are also catalogued, and finally there is a geographical and numerical list of all 14,348 National Banks. More than 300 pages, 8 1/2"x11" cloth bound. The only reference work of its kind in the world. $12.50

A definite work. Third Edition, 1959.

GOLD COINS OF THE WORLD

Complete from 600 A.D. to 1958. An illustrated standard catalogue with valuations by Robert Friedberg.

The only book of its kind ever published, it is a monumental advance in numismatic knowledge. Every gold coin in the world is catalogued in one volume with its numismatic valuation. Features: more than 2700 illustrations, valuable reference tables, including the weight, fineness and original exchange value of the principal gold coins of the world. It belongs in the library of anyone interested in coins and is an important source book for banks, libraries, research staffs and institutions of learning. 384 pages, 8 1/2"x11", cloth bound. $15.00

First Edition.

Dealers are invited to send for our Wholesale Price List, using their business stationery and furnishing suitable credit references as to their commercial status.

We Present THE OFFICIAL MEDAL Of The

The Coin and Currency Institute, Inc., of New York and California has been appointed sole national distributor of this medal, which commemorates officially the Centennial of the Civil War.

It will be available in both bronze and silver about May 31, 1961.

The medal, which is 2½ inches in size, is being issued under authority of the Civil War Centennial Commission, which was created by an Act of Congress. The medal will be struck by the Medallic Art Company from designs and sculptor's models that have been approved by the U.S. Government Fine Arts Commission in Washington, D.C.

As can be seen from the above illustration, the obverse bears the portraits of Gen. Ulysses S. Grant and Gen. Robert E. Lee. The reverse shows the seal of the Civil War Centennial Commission, having as its main theme, a Union and Confederate soldier. The medal will be sold in its own specially made container and will come with a printed, informative leaflet.

In addition to the bronze medal, there will be an issue of pure silver medals, which will be limited to 25,000 serially numbered pieces.

PRICES OF THE CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL MEDAL

The official prices of the Civil War Centennial Medal follow:

THE BRONZE CENTENNIAL MEDAL....$4.00

THE PURE SILVER CENTENNIAL MEDAL....$30.00

Please note: Because of the limited amount, the silver medals are offered subject to being sold out. Those wishing silver medals should place their order now. Earlier this year many thousands were disappointed when their orders for silver Inaugural medals were placed too late. Because of the overwhelming national interest in the Civil War, it is expected that the silver medals will be quickly sold out.

The bronze and silver medals will be available about May 31, 1961 at your local coin and stamp dealer, department store coin counters, hobby shops etc., or you may write to either our New York or California office. Coin dealers or others wishing to carry this medal for resale should write to us at once for our terms.
